Prayers Given to Agnès-Marie

Translator's Note:

Having spent many years in France and being aware of the 'divine mission of France', a subject of messages from Jesus to Agnès-Marie, the translator recognized the importance of this book – 'Joy of God'. The translator made appropriate acquaintance of Agnès-Marie and her Spiritual Director, and obtained permission from the French publisher to bring this work out in the English language. The present booklet is a first set of extracts.

Feast of the Epiphany, 6th January 2009

Declaration:

In the Acts of the Apostolic See of 22 December 1966, a decree was published by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, dated 15 November 1966, and approved by His Holiness Pope Paul VI on 14 October 1966. According to this decree, which entered into force three months after its publication, articles 1385, 1399 and 2318 of the Code of Canon Law were abrogated. Since that time it has been permitted to publish and distribute writings such as are contained in this book without an Imprimatur.

Conforming to the decree of Pope Urban VIII, the author (and translator) declares submission to all decisions of the Holy Roman Church, Catholic and Apostolic, concerning the publication of this book, and to final judgment of the Holy Church.

Preface by Robert Héés (Doctor of Theology, Doctor of Canon Law):

Since the day of Pentecost twenty centuries ago, the history of the salvation of mankind has entered into the last times. They are the times of the Church. These times will be completed on the day of the Last Judgment. The last times, or the times of the Church, are divided into three periods or cycles of unequal length: the times of the pagans (cf. Luke 21:24); the times of the civilization of love or the reign of a thousand years (cf. Rev. 20:1-6); and the time of the brief return of Satan (cf. Rev. 20:7-10) which is brought to an end by the judgment of the nations (cf. Rev. 20:11-15) or the Last Judgment.

The first eschatological combat is situated at the end of the time of the pagans. This is the period in which humanity is living at the present time. It is also the time of the Church of Laodicea (Rev. 3:14-22). It is a time which involves a general purification of humanity before the coming of the civilization of love. This period will experience a paroxysm in the spiritual combat between the Woman and the Dragon (cf. Rev. 12) until the triumph of the Two United Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

The spiritual combat which is taking place at the present time between the Church of Jesus Christ and the false Church of Satan will soon be characterized by the coming of the short period of the Antichrist (cf. 2 Thess 2:3-10; Rev. 9:1-11). This personage, accompanied by the false prophet (Rev. 13:11-16), will be seconded, on the one hand, by the beast from the sea (cf. Rev. 13:1-10), secular freemasonry, and on the other hand, by the beast of the earth (cf. Rev. 13:11-16), ecclesiastical freemasonry.

In the book of Revelation (or Apocalypse), St. John employs symbolic language, that is difficult to interpret, to describe the personages and the events of this spiritual combat. Hence, God comes to our aid in our time by means of various signs, which include private revelations, to explain with clarity to Christ's faithful the precise significance of figures in the Apocalypse.

The unveiling of the Apocalypse has taken place in three principal stages. Our Lord Jesus Christ in 1943 explained the sense of the first three chapters of the Apocalypse to the mystic soul Maria Valtorta. The Virgin Mary in 1982 continued by explaining to the priest Dom Stefano Gobbi further passages of the Apocalypse in the context of the Marian Movement of Priests. Jesus, the God-Man, in 1999 complemented the commentary on this difficult book in messages given to Agnès-Marie, so that Revelation may now be better understood as a whole by all.

This commentary is contained in the present book, 'JOY OF GOD', along with various prophetic announcements, including some which concern France in relation to the apparitions of Manduria ('Manduria - Jésus, Roi de Révélation, Marie, Vierge de l'Eucharistie, Parlent à Deborah – Présentation et Messages', Editions du Parvis, Switzerland, 2000).

These messages, coming from numerous heavenly interventions, also treat many other subjects which the reader will discover throughout the pages of this work. All that a soldier of Christ ought to know to participate in the spiritual combat and to contribute to the coming of the civilization of love is indicated in a clear and precise manner in the messages contained herein. Hence, when the events take place, no-one will be able to say: 'I didn't know'.

The criteria between the 'little remnant' (cf. Amos 5:15; So 3:12-13) and those who refuse salvation offered by God, is fidelity to the Lord, to His Word, and to His commandments. Yahweh prescribed fidelity in faith as a requirement for His chosen people. Jesus Christ reminds members of His Church of this fundamental engagement: 'Even if you have to die, keep faithful, and I will give you the crown of life for your prize' (Rev. 2:10).

Conversion and prayer, confidence (trust) and love, faith and hope in God, such are the insistent calls made by Jesus, the Son of God, and His Mother Mary, of which we are insistently reminded in numerous messages being spread by the Lord's 'mouthpieces', the prophets of our times, throughout the world. 'This is why the saints must have perseverance and faith' (Rev. 13:10), the saints that we are one day called to be in heaven, nevertheless on the condition of already desiring it here below and walking the walk on earth, because each and every one is called, in the station in life where each is to be found, to be a witness of Christ in our time.

Robert Héés (†), Doctor of Catholic Theology, Doctor of Canon Law

Agnès-Marie – Messenger:

The messages which you will read in this book were taken down by Agnès-Marie in dictation given by Our Lord Jesus Christ, God the Father, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the Archangel Michael. These messages concern our generation, and, most probably, the future generation. These messages attest that the times which have been announced are being accomplished. And, as the Lord said to her on 4 January 2000: 'You, ... you are privileged to live at a time in which all the prophecies are becoming a reality, you know that your long wait for My coming will be gratified during your own lifetime on My earth. Indeed, this generation will not pass away until all this takes place. You are that generation!'

'The Christian economy, therefore, since it is the new and definitive Covenant, will never pass away; and no new public revelation is to be expected before the glorious manifestation of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Yet even if Revelation is already complete, it has not been made completely explicit; it remains for Christian faith gradually to grasp its full significance over the course of the centuries.' (Catechism of the Catholic Church, §66).

'Throughout the ages, there have been so-called 'private revelations', some of which have been recognized by the authority of the Church. They do not belong, however, to the deposit of the faith. It is not their role to improve or complete Christ's definitive Revelation, but to help live more fully by it in a certain period of history. Guided by the Magisterium of the Church, the 'sensus fidelium' knows how to discern and welcome in these revelations whatever constitutes an authentic call of Christ or His saints to the Church.' (Catechism of the Catholic Church, §67).

Now let us get to know a little about Agnès-Marie ... from herself.

Preface by Agnès-Marie:

In writing this brief preface about myself, I am responding to a request of Jesus. I am also responding to a legitimate and quite natural curiosity which many people have manifested to me: the need to know who is this instrument that the Lord chose. It is important and necessary to know that the instrument is just like each and every one of you who read this book: a child of Adam and child of God, which means caught in sin and attracted by the Light which is God - Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

'A precious little nothing', that is what we are and let us remember that all is grace and that graces are not always proportional to our merits. Indeed, does St. Paul not teach, in wisdom coming from the Holy Spirit: 'Because when I am weak, then I am strong' because Christ comes to make up for our weaknesses with His grace? I am able to share with you a little of the existence that I have lived until the present time. However, you will know little more about who I am (and do I even know myself?) because the secrets of the soul are, for the most part, hidden in the heart of God. Only He knows, because He alone is the One who knows hearts and minds. At most I can only provide you with the perception that I have of myself, which is not much.

I am the eldest of a family of five children. My parents were and still are Christian. We discovered Charismatic Renewal in 1988, and I went for the first time to a large such gathering at the age of twenty. I remember my profound annoyance, even violent feelings, because of the joy and exuberance being experienced by other people who were present: the Lord had already touched me because what annoyed me so strongly was the discovery within myself of the absence of that spontaneous joy, the Joy of God! From the first Mass, I cried, I shed tears, even with a certain violence, because of the distance which I had placed between God and my soul. But He was watching and waiting.

Then I studied to be a primary school teacher. And in 1993, with the last of my resources at the time, I made a pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

And there the Lord overwhelmed me, showing me two of my principal mistakes with respect to Him and making me hear His voice for the first time. We had been encouraged to pray individually, out in the desert. I was on a hill, in prayer without knowing it, when I heard resound on the nearby cliffs, bathed in the red glow of the setting sun, and at the same time it seemed as if I saw written before me: 'Father, why have you abandoned Me?'

My first mistake was to have believed that God had abandoned me. I was unaware that such a feeling dwelt within me. In the same movement of grace, the Heavenly Father revealed His presence to me, as He had 'revealed Himself to Moses, Abraham and Jacob', as He told me later.

My second mistake was pride. I was incapable of getting on my knees, to the point where I even left the queue for Communion, because I was refused Communion while standing.

Shame rather than humility!. And in His mercy, three times the Lord had me fall to my knees for no apparent reason in the most unlikely places. I was obliged to ask myself some very serious questions. At the end of the pilgrimage I was able to say, before the others, 'Not my will, but Yours'. Wow, I was saved! I went to Confession, but without great contrition, perhaps rather some attrition, but more to please the others.

Then I married, and we now have two daughters, all the while running our own business. When Mary invited us to go to Medjugorje in June 1998, I had already begun an interior walk. I became aware of my sinfulness -- I am convinced it was thanks to Our Lady -- I who had always considered myself as a 'good Christian', even though I rarely went to Mass, prayed little, and I dabbled in New Age philosophy! I nevertheless managed to avoid going to Confession in Medjugorje, a place often known as 'the largest confessional in the world!' I tell you all this to underline my resistance to the call of God in my life.

Finally, in November 1998, in the course of a spiritual weekend dedicated to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, I was able to let go and allow grace to inundate my being, and great contrition invaded me.

During the month of April my Angel Guardian had me take from a drawer a bookshop publicity flyer, long since forgotten, thanks to which I ordered the books of Françoise – 'Messages de Conversion des Cœurs' (Messages for Conversion of Hearts). That was how I discovered how God speaks to us in our own time. Concurrently, I went on a retreat where for the first time I had interior visions of Christ and experiences in prayer of a depth that I had never had before.

On my return the books that I had ordered had arrived by mail. On reading them I was profoundly moved and received deep and direct in my heart the messages of Jesus, leading me to a very real conversion of heart. The Lord then made me understand that I had received the same charisma (gift) as Françoise, to hear the voice of the Lord. I was quite astonished at the news, and being quite hesitant, I dared not believe. Nevertheless, I decided to buy an exercise book, saying to myself that I would wait until I had finished reading the books of Françoise. However, by 11 May 1999 I already felt compelled to begin writing, writings that have now become the collection of messages that you are now about to read in this book.

Since then, many people have asked me about the manner in which I hear the messages that are dictated to me. And it is still difficult for me to explain these heart to heart moments with the Lord.

Then, to help me write this preface, the Lord providentially placed in my hands a copy of the book 'I Want to See God' by Father Marie-Eugene of the Child Jesus. I opened it up at the chapter on extra-ordinary favours and there read the very description of what I experience.

Listen to St. Therese of Avila: 'These words are very distinct, but one does not hear them with the ears of the body; one nevertheless perceives them in an even clearer manner than by the sense of hearing. All efforts made to avoid hearing them are of no avail'.

St. John of the Cross distinguishes three types of interior words: successive words, formal words, and substantial words.

Concerning formal words, he makes clear: 'very often they are like thoughts which are communicated to the spirit [...], they instruct the soul' and have as their purpose 'a teaching, or to shed light on certain things.'

'Substantial words, on the other hand, are formal clearly distinguished words because they imprint upon the soul what they mean' explains Father Marie-Eugene, and he furthermore makes clear that 'it belongs to God alone to attach particular effectiveness to formal words.'

Indeed, when the Lord says to me 'Fear not' or 'Peace, peace, peace, My daughter' I feel immediate peace; the word of God is alive and active, and makes the soul feel and experience what it says. I will even dare to say that the Word of God is also alive and active even when it is read by a soul with all its heart. Does not the Lord say graces of conversion are attached to His Words? I can say, in terms more modern than those of St. John of the Cross, that the Words of the Lord strike and affect the soul to its most profound depths, which even reveal to it its divine origin and enable it to feel as a child of the Father, from which comes concomitant conversion.

I believe I can identify a double action of such formal words and substantial words. Let me quote the example of the explanations given in the Apocalypse of St. John, and this is how it occurred: the Lord at first invited me to read certain passages; then I was given light on the meaning of certain terms or phrases. I identify these as formal words of which the saint speaks. Thirdly, the Lord dictated to me His commentary in the usual form of substantial words.

To conclude this brief preface, I would like you to forget the poor instrument that I am, to enable the messages of Jesus to touch your hearts.

Agnès-Marie

EXTRACTS FROM THE MESSAGES (1999-2008):

What follows is a selection of extracts from messages given by Jesus.

17 May 1999:

2. I am going to return to this gloomy earth and My light will dazzle those who love Me; they will fall on their knees in ecstasy, and I will draw them to My heart in the joy of profound friendship. Those who will have refused Me despite My appeals will be scorched by the Fire of My Love and they will throw themselves into the furnace. Yes, it is so, there are souls so dark, so ensnared by Satan and incarnate demons that they cannot bear the Divine Fire and they will prefer the fire of Hell.

6. We are at the beginning of the time of My Justice, and My Mercy must touch the greatest possible number of hearts. I wish to touch hearts so that they understand the Tenderness and Love which I have for them. The greatest number will turn towards Me at the hour of the trial of purification now due because of My Justice, and I will protect them from fear and anguish.

19 May 1999:

12. The hour of the purification is about to sound and I will come in My Glory to visit all hearts. What will I see then when I look into your hearts? Love for Me, or the filth of your sins?

20 May 1999:

2. Baptism is the Sacrament of the children of God, the one which gives the soul the anointing of My Spirit. I protect your children when they are confided to me, for it is through the grace of Baptism that My Holy Anointing comes down upon them and My Blessing opens their hearts to receive My grace. 'Child of God' means a child which I have received into My Sacred Heart for Eternal Life; and a child over which Mary My Holy Mother will watch with Me to awaken it to the reality of its existence as an 'adoptive son or daughter of the Father'. It also signifies a child which enters into My church, a member which I adjoin to My Mystical Body and in which thenceforth circulates My Precious Blood and My Holy Spirit.

25 May 1999:

3. It was truly My Sacred Heart that you saw during evening prayer on the Vigil of Pentecost, the rays from which transpierced you. I poured Myself into your soul to link you with Me; this was our espousal if you like awaiting the hour to make you My spouse, for the Church, for France, for the world.

4. I now wish to give to your world My conception of the government of souls upon the earth, as I mean it, in the light of who I am. Yes, there exists a holy manner, and blessed by My Heart, of governing and leading My people, which takes care to place Me at the highest place and to act with justice, justice which is love for My people.

5. Do not analyze what I say, but trust Me, and write what I dictate to you, I the Christ-Jesus, Lord of Heaven and earth. I am the King of your earth and there is no other, unless it be he whom I have created to serve Me according to My will. I want to teach you the best manner to govern and administer mankind so that not a single one is lost.

6. The objectives of whoever governs a country should always be:
 1. To love God.
 2. To obey Him and to serve Him according to His Will.
 3. To bring about earthly happiness and prosperity.
 4. To raise souls up to Heaven.
 5. To bring about the New Jerusalem.

For this purpose, a number of organizations must be ordered according to My plans. You are aware of the decrepit state of your institutions; I do not need to say more on this.

7. In a future which is not very far away now I have determined to renew the face of the earth. I have determined that it will be led by My Lieutenant, in the manner which I intend, according to My ways and My Will. All this will take place when the time has come, after the great purification which has already commenced, when everything will have to be rebuilt.

8. Are you trying to evoke what the world will be like after this purification? You could not possibly conceive what it will be like. But you will be ready to serve Me when I need you.

9. Why you? Because you love Me and you want to serve me! Do you think that there are many hearts who are open to My gifts and to My Will, who have a profound certainty of My return and that the future must be built with Jesus Himself? My answer to you is: No, My servants are very few for the harvest, which is to bring down upon the earth the justice, love and peace of God. I need the love of all the little ones who are Mine. I love you, be not afraid, I will do everything. I need your will to serve Me as well as your brothers and sisters, and your hearts to be open to My coming.

10. I am coming back, and My justice has commenced; My Mercy is at work more than ever, My Love awaits all of you again, and My Light illuminates the world. The Divine Fire is approaching, My Heart is being poured out, My Life gives itself, My Spirit is being given to you. You must receive it!

11. I am the Good Shepherd. I know My sheep and they know Me. First listen to Me, then act according to what I say to you; this is what I want of each of you. Listen to Me, walk with Me, trust Me.

12. I am the Good Shepherd: governor of your souls and administrator of your persons, looking to establishing the Kingdom of God on the earth, and looking to bringing down the Heavenly Jerusalem, Heaven on earth, this is what I want to give you, mankind of these times! We are going to work together to save this earth from the evil which is devouring it, so as to present it, through the hands of Mary, newly purified, to the Heavenly Father.

13. The Holy Trinity and all of Heaven suffer to see that the work of destruction has attained such proportions upon your earth, which was lovingly created and cherished, giving it the gift of life for mankind. Man who, far from glorifying the Father, rejects Him! This is no longer tolerable, the arm of justice is coming down. Let he who has ears listen!

1 June 1999: On the Christian Renewal Movement

6. ... I will overturn the arrogant, and I will do this with but a little instrument, which, through My grace and because I will be the head of it, will become the most powerful movement which has ever existed. It must be said that there has never been a real political Movement led by Jesus Himself and borne by His angels. I will accomplish this with a rapidity which will stun My enemies and My Glory will burst forth miraculously.

7. The powerful, the 'great ones' of the earth, and all those who are in any manner corrupt will be completely disoriented by the brilliance of My victory.

8. I could, with a clap of thunder, overturn them all, but in My Mercy and Tenderness for souls who have been so abused by demons that have invaded and taken over the institutions of your planet, I will walk in the footsteps of mankind in order to save many more who will see My Presence and My Mercy in this work that you are going to help Me put in place. Or rather, I am going to help you -- give Me your will to serve Me and you will see with what speed I will rearrange 'things'! Even you yourselves will be stunned! You will recognize that is I, Jesus Christ, who directs your life. Through this, everyone will see the mighty Majesty of your God.

9. From practically nothing, I will set up the platform of victory of Christ over evil. It will be the first true Christian Party committed to obedience to the first commandment of all time: that God be served first and foremost, because it is He who looks after you, to excess!.

10. Just as when I direct a work, it cannot fail, so too in politics you can trust in Me: I know all hearts; I know every psychological machination; I know every errant type of behaviour full of trickery that certain people believe they can hide from Me.

11. Yes, It will be like a final crusade against the enemy of humanity and of God. It is a matter of opening the eyes of people to see the darkness of those who pretend to look after your well-being. It is a matter of denouncing the maneuvers and manipulations of Satan and his henchmen. It is a matter of unmasking the liar, the deceiver, the enemy of your souls, the devil who ruins your lives, drowning you in the excesses of the consumer society, weighing you down under almost total control over your resources.

12. Place your hope in Jesus Christ and you will not be let down, He who truly loves you because He is the author of your lives. Satan wants nothing but your damnation. Renew yourselves and your lives with the divine values of Love, Justice and Peace, in Me and through Me, Jesus Christ.

13. The combat will be harsh and the detractors will be numerous. But thanks to My various messengers who are already at work far and wide to bring back to Me the greatest possible number of souls, the eyes of those who believe will be opened and throughout the world they will see for themselves, and all of them will recognize that this unique Christian movement is truly led by Me. This century will barely be over when this will take place. And, yes, I know there are only a few months remaining! Even this is sufficient for Me; when I am in charge of 'something' it takes place very quickly. Ready yourselves to serve Me soon.

14. The only armour to put on is Jesus Christ. The only weapon to have is Love. The only guide to have is the Holy Spirit of God. The only advisor to have is Mary, My Holy Mother.

15. Then, during this quite short time that remains for us in the desert, before the combat commences, allow Me to clothe you with My love, allow Me to form and train you in My way of seeing and doing things, in My tenderness for mankind.

16. Everything I undertake, I do it for the love of My creation and because the Holy Trinity can no longer put up with the distressing and lamentable spectacle which the world presents to Us.

17. It is for love of humanity, for souls whom I have created, that I am intervening in the history of mankind, raising up faithful and zealous instruments. The best known example of course is Joan of Arc, but there have been others, sometimes less well known

18. From now on there will no longer be separation between the political and the religious. It would be like keeping the soul separated from the body. No, the way we are now taking is the way of unity. It is a matter of restoring unity all levels; there will no longer be a dichotomy between work and prayer, between man and women, between state and religion, between children and parents, between duties and service, between justice and peace, between faith and will, between you and I, between Heaven and earth!

19. There will be horizontal unity and vertical unity, and My Cross seen in this light will find its justification in the eyes of all. It will no longer be an 'object of scandal', 'folly in the eyes of men', because each person will have seen their salvation for eternal life.

12 June 1999:

5. You know that I have said to Françoise that the Antichrist, that is to say Satan himself, is soon going to manifest himself. You will soon be able to identify him with certitude because he will attain the position that he has coveted for a long time. And once there, his contempt for My love, for God and all that is of God, for Christians, and for the truth will be such that you will have no doubt as to who he is.

2. Today you are clearly obliged to acknowledge that that no-one can now be either for or against 'Europe' because, in fact, it already exists. One can have different opinions on directions and ways of doing things, but it is obvious that from now on the choice to be made must be between those who want to persist in their error of building an atheistic Europe, 'social' (the opposite of 'fraternal' in the Christian sense) and riven by internal power struggles, and those who have a firm will to finally confide authority and power over their lives into the hands of God, who does not make mistakes. Now is the time -- soon -- when the people who are going to assert themselves in their difference, without ill-will but animated rather by My Love, in their will to follow Christ will arise, to allow Him to help you build the 'Holy City', that is, an ideal social organisation, because it is divine, an organisation of true human brotherhood. It will suffice to always place God in first place and the flock that I am forming will arise, a flock that has decided to work by political means, to work with Me and for Me.

3. I assure you that My Spirit has already placed this desire in the hearts of many of My faithful and it only remains to crystallise these commitments around a federating movement. Each member of this movement must be one of My faithful (a member of My Mystical Body), always in union with Me and having placed his or her will in Mine. No decision, from the beginning to the end of this adventure, at the same time both 'political' and spiritual, must be taken without Me.

4. It is a matter of bringing together, like a community which lives from My Spirit, those whom I have designated for this foundation. This means that it will be necessary for these persons to be living an authentic Christian life in the Sacred Heart, which I am, and to participate at Mass before each decisive meeting. Imagine a community which will be the core of a political movement directed by Me ... do you see what I am calling you to ... a community which, through its prayers and its participation, will support your meetings, a life of brothers and sisters in Christ, peace and harmony in the joy of God. Is this not far more agreeable than the struggle for power, lies and deceptions, underhand trickery, political 'suicides', and the hypocrisy of vested and financial interests?

5. I have spoken of the foundation of a movement, for it concerns creation of a new Movement, because nothing like what I want currently exists. Have no fear, and do not forget that it is I who will look after everything, and that I have already implanted the desire to do this in the hearts and minds of many of My faithful adorers. Because, to fight with like weapons in the political domain, which the Masonic sect has almost universally infiltrated, there must be a political Movement empowered by My Presence and My grace.

6. Finally, we will have God against Satan in politics, instead of the serpent 'eating its own tail'. The great battle is about to commence in 'Heaven'. It is now necessary to put in place the structures required for this party of God, God Served First in all eternity. The fight will be bitter but the victory will be stunning. Do not forget that it is I the Christ who wants all this and is looking after it to put it in place. To accomplish this, I will avail Myself of a little core of insignificant people. It is for Me to awaken hearts to make possible that which I have announced.

7. In the beginning I will act discretely in bringing My sheep together. One day the political world will realize they must take into account that there is an original new structure (in the sense that no true party of believers exists in the Sacred Heart of Jesus). We will do this first in France. Then in other countries too Christians will realise they are being called to follow the same model, and then we will move to the European level, and then to the world, and I will triumph over the enemy.

8. Of course, you have some difficulty in imagining and understanding such things; and even the role you will have to play in all this, but believe Me and you will see for yourselves. I call you to serve Me in this work that we will begin quietly in a short time, to which I will give greater and greater impetus. Therefore, rejoice that you are called to be associated so closely with Me in My work in your country and in the world! Remain in the joy of serving Me so faithfully.

9. As a Christian, i.e., people who live in Christ, you must respect other political persuasions; you must always be courteous and attentive to others, because this too is your life in Me, and through the example that you give you will overcome. Be witnesses of My love in political life based on the conviction of loving God and your fellow man; let one be able to say of you on seeing you: 'It is God alive', as I said in My gospels.

18 June 1999:

8. If you flee from knowledge of who I am, it is because in knowing Me, you would know that I love you and hence you might begin to love Me and to know God, and also that Satan cannot tolerate it. Hence, he will then propose such a life for you, that you no longer have the time to examine the question of the possibility of considering the world under another angle than that of your present existence. He will saturate you with information, more or less contradictory moreover, so that you might not look for information on Me, Christ Jesus. How can you accept to deny your sacrosanct liberty in the name of a uniformity of view imposed by My enemy and yours? As much as I love you, Satan hates you. If he seduces you it is only so that he can destroy you. Therefore, open your eyes at last to see his perversity. Understand that the current world is built on lies and a destructive model put in place by Satan. After My hour, that of the purification when I will ask you: 'Do you love Me?', and when it will be necessary to respond 'yes' from your heart and not 'no'. After that hour therefore, I will rebuild the world, with My faithful collaborators, according to My hierarchy of 'Heaven'. This is what one calls 'Heaven on earth', the 'Heavenly Jerusalem', the 'new heavens and the new earth'. All these expressions apply to the reconstruction of human relations on earth according to the divine plan and according to the model of the organisation of the 'invisible' world.

9. The 'Heaven that comes down to earth' is My Kingdom that is coming, in other words I am going to help you build holy institutions and holy relations (right order) among you, a true fraternity in Christ where you will at last have My Peace on a planetary scale. And when the prophecies speak of 'new heavens', it is because when your world finally takes Me for 'Head' ('leader'), for 'King', your place in heaven will change and the celestial hierarchy will be modified to integrate your arrival, to confirm your re-integration in the cosmos, because you will have expelled Satan who provoked the rupture of your world with celestial structures.

10. And it is to combat his almost total hold over your world, over your intelligences and your hearts, that I took flesh in one of yours, Mary, and that I became man, all the while remaining fully God.

Jesus Christ

19 June 1999:

10. When I speak of some persons and then of others, in effect I distinguish between those who launch the Movement and get it going, and those who follow, and there is no need for anyone to take umbrage at this. In My Celestial Court there is a hierarchy, which is the order of love, and each one is happy in their place and in their particular mission. It is a hierarchy founded on love and through love, each one in their place, and all the while growing in their knowledge of God. Those who are closest to God have the duty of helping those who are furthest away because they are more blinded by ignorance and false ideas.

And if I ask a soul, chosen by Me, to assume a principal responsibility in this new world, it is a serious responsibility that I confer upon it. The first places in My house are charged with responsibilities, so as to bring souls back to Me and to lead each person among My people to know Me and to enter into My Sacred Heart with the love they have learned to share. And if some persons dream of places of honour and the love of power, they have well and truly misunderstood what I intend. No, I have prepared certain souls to assume the role of relays of God upon the earth, by communicating Myself to them, in giving them My vision of the world and the love of God and the love of serving Me, because of love for their brothers and sisters. Some have consciences (and consciousnesses) which do not extend beyond their own persons, and others have access to the vision of God for peoples and the world, which renders them capable, with and for Me, of helping their brothers and sisters, and of leading their people to Me.

11. To bring the world within My Sacred Heart, this is the mission I give you, which is the desire I placed in your soul when I created you. I made you servants. And this desire to serve, it is I who placed it in you, for My glorification and for your justification.

12. Your justification, which means that in serving Me you find the reason for your life, your purpose in life, the reason for your existence, and the very reason for the creation of your soul. Do not be afraid to discover the enormity of what this means: you are sons and daughters of God, servants, with Me and through Me, for Me and in Me. It is with Me that your mission becomes possible, and it is also through you that what I want becomes possible. ... It is I who will save the world and for this I have moulded prophets, and it is I who will build the new world in My Image, for I have trained souls to help Me.

13. Through Baptism you are prophets, priests and kings, do not forget this. It is this anointing of Baptism which makes possible the action of My Grace and the accomplishment of missions which surpass the human being, which attain to the heights of God, that is to say, infinitely!!! I have, of course, also formed priests, lovers of My Sacred Heart, who are ready for the new, indeed eternal, religion of tomorrow.

14. Do not be astonished at all this, God wants to bring the world back to the unity of creation, to His Heart, that it left such a long time ago by allowing itself to be seduced and separated by Satan, the rebel, the proud one. It is Satan who, as seducer, has led you to desire himself, instead of remaining in the desire for God, your true place.

15. God is waiting for you all, always, and more than ever today as the arm of His Justice is about to come down upon the earth to expose the Usurper and to bring you back to Him. And it is through Me, the Christ who am the centre, that this will take place. The centre, this is what the Christological term 'Christ-centered' means, that Jesus Christ is the centre of history, the centre of man, the origin and the end, with God in the Trinity. Christ, towards whom converges the sense of the history of man and the 'angels' (angels here means : the celestial world).

Jesus Christ

22 July 1999:

5. I bless you for having placed your will in Mine and to want, in advance, to align yourself with My counsels and My ways of thinking. These will be future directives for the organization of governments of peoples that you are to put in place with Me, when the hour of My Law sounds for your world and for My Light in the hearts of My children. Amen.

9 August 1999:

1. I bless you, little daughter of My Sacred Heart; your life is soon going to take on a new direction, and you are going to serve Me even more. I need to communicate My light to all souls of good will, and for this I need each person who will be led by Me to the knowledge of these messages that I give you. Like the parable of the talents that were given to the servants of the house by the master who went away on a long voyage, I expect that on My return you will have brought forth good results from what you have been given as a heritage as children of God. Upon you reposes My work of conversion of hearts and the establishment of governments of peoples which will conform with My evangelic principles, that I gave to you in the gospels of My disciples, and which My Mother has so many times commended to you in her apparitions. We must sanctify the institutions so as to lead all peoples to rediscover and to live their vocation as children of God in holiness and in adoration of their Father, God of all humanity.

2. Your Mother in Heaven also needs you so as to triumph over My adversary and to bring about the reign of My Light for the whole earth.

3. My work and the work of My Mother are united, as our Two Hearts are united.

12 August 1999:

2. You were right, or at least partly right, in what you said yesterday about the different phases of the struggle against evil and the establishment of the reign of God upon the earth. These two points are intrinsically linked. That is why My action is simultaneously taking place at two levels: a 'political' Movement of God to counter the dominant parties (which are already in the process of breaking up) of the Masonic sect, and action based on the prayer of a community of faithful companions, attentive to My messages, organizing meetings, and welcoming those who want to participate. This community, networked with others that exist, will support the action of the Movement at every level; partisans will adhere, at least in an interior manner, with all their heart to the community.

3. Companions and partisans will work together, hand in hand. All will be both companion and partisan, but will be predominantly either one or the other. I am the artisan of unity, and the time for the temporal and spiritual domains being separated is over. Every man and woman is a child of God, i.e., simultaneously a human body living upon the earth and a spiritual being.

4. Indeed, I want to build upon the earth the reign of heart-to-heart life between creatures and the Creator: the reign of God.

5. To install this divine reign and this universal peace that I, Jesus, am alone able to bring about, one must combat the Adversary on his own terrain, as I have already said, with My weapons, which are Love and My constant Presence which I am giving you. All this first phase of action is directed towards the conversion of hearts. When My justice will have passed and I will have overturned the Usurper, the adversary, the antichrist Satan, the world will be renewed and the face of the earth will be truly changed. Evil will no longer be, and all the dichotomies -- issues and arguments which you are accustomed to dealing with in terms of dualities -- will gradually have to be transformed into unity.

6. I will raise up for each people, for each country, a servant on fire filled with zeal for his God and with passion to serve his brothers and sisters in the truth and justice of divine law, by means of sanctified institutions. My angels will assist you in this phase of putting things in place. It will be the time for ending the spirit of the world which has been created by Satan, of struggles for power, of jealousies, of hatreds, grudges and lack of forgiveness. All such behaviour will be banished forever because the people of God will be purified through their profound encounter with Me in their hearts. My Light will have burned away all the scale and dross of a world profaned by the enemy, a world that you will have known up until the day of My triumph, which I announce to you is coming soon. My reign is truly coming.

23 August 1999:

4. My Church must draw its strength from My Body and My Blood, always relying on Me for Her food and Her drink. No-one can live without water, and I am the source of living water that I communicate through My Blood. From My wounded heart sprang forth your Redemption, from My martyred body sprang forth Eternal Life for you. Adore your God in the Blessed Sacrament; expose Me more than ever for adoration by My faithful, and thus live from My Spirit. Yes, you priests, give Me to My people. My people need My presence and My love for them. My people need to know that I am very close to them, so give Me to them. The restoration of My Church takes place through renewal of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, which enables experience of My Real Presence, and through communion with the Body and Blood of Christ.

24 August 1999:

11. I now want to speak further about the Blessed Sacrament. Before Me, exposed in the Blessed Sacrament, you come to adore your God in His Real Presence, given to the earth to strengthen your souls and to reinforce your faith. In this way, before Me, an intimate dialogue is set up between your soul and My Presence. In silent adoration I speak, I give you My spirit, I raise up your souls to give you a taste and a share of the Kingdom. This interior recollection allows you to grasp My Spirit and the words that I place in your heart. Such silence especially develops this attentiveness, the desire that you have for My Presence, and which makes you even more sensitive to My Presence in you during the Eucharist (the Mass).

12. This is also the time to confide all your concerns and worries to Me, and also for reaffirming your confidence (trust) and your faith in Me.

13. It is also the time to tell Me that you love Me. To adore is to love sublimely. Hence allow your hearts to slake their thirst at the source.

14. It would be good if I were exposed every day in your parishes so that those who wish to come can come to see Me and adore Me for at least a short while, as is seen in My Churches, in communities and monasteries. I wish to give Myself to My People so they come back to Me in truth and live from Me.

15. Parishes ought to be like the first Christian communities, imitating them as described by St. Paul in his letters and in the Acts of the Apostles, instead of being the deserts that I see today ... I bless you.

Jesus Christ

30 August 1999:

8. The Kingdom that awaits you is a thousand times more radiant than the one you leave. The colours of life there are of infinite beauty, more alive, more tangible too, with thousands of changing nuances impossible to reproduce upon the earth. The most beautiful painting by the most talented artist could not reproduce this eternal splendor. The air is filled with suave perfumes, one more delicate than another. Everything possess an intensity of life that renders the least creation magnificent. There too order reigns. Nothing that does not have a purpose, nothing out of equilibrium, everything is pure harmony and beauty, propitious for elevation of the heart. Everything contributes to progressive knowledge of the Heart of God, who is Love. Nothing opaque or somber, everything is transparent, fluid, light. Truly, in the Kingdom, the soul feels marvelously well, bathed in the light of the Father, inhabited by the Christ who I am, surrounded by welcoming and sympathetic friends. Beyond the voyage that is death, there is true life, and the way continues in the deepening of the knowledge of God, of prayer and praise. I am at your sides, My love accompanies you. Do not fear death which is the true birth into life. Rather, yearn serenely for this meeting with Me. The hour of your death belongs to Me.

Jesus Christ

4 September 1999:

12. Yes, I want to found with you a centre (home) of the 'Movement of Love', the statutes of which you have in the book on Manduria (op. cit.), and a 'political' party. This party is the 'Movement of Christ', a movement of conversion of hearts, which is to have responsibility on the national political scene, and then on the international scene, to combat freemasonry which has invested all the existing parties that claim to represent citizens. Open your eyes and see how they manipulate you! Not one of them concerns itself with your eternal salvation, which is the only true purpose of your existence on earth, which requires learning to love. Do these monsters of egoism and ineptitude elevate the state of your being? Do they love you, these agents of evil?

Then make a decision for Me, to be Mine, I who love you, who am Salvation, the Way, Truth and Life. Each person who converts, each person who consecrates himself or herself to My Sacred Heart and to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, which are united, will understand in their heart that if they want My reign to come, they are called to engage themselves in My party. I will henceforth speak of My Movement. France will understand suddenly that a current which she thought she had succeeded in eliminating will spring forth anew, more powerful than ever: the Movement of the Soldiers of Christ, the Movement of Servant Adorers of Christ. This is why I tell you that the 'Movement of Love' and the party are one and the same work. I will build with you the unity of the world, which is far from today's globalization derived from power based on money in a world led by Satan. My reign will be one of Love, of mutual service in the knowledge of your destiny. When the 'Movement of Love' begins to spread in France, among both the clergy and the people, the 'political'

Movement will be in place. In fact, by then it will only be necessary to establish the relays (leaders inspired by God) and to present those chosen (candidates to be elected) everywhere. All this preparation will take place under the protection of the mantle of Mary, Protector of Peoples, Mother of Humanity, Queen of the earth and the New Jerusalem, resplendent with the love of God. It is thus that she will protect My work from the sight of the Evil One, and when she opens her mantle, sectarian France and the evil world will discover with stupour that they have lost. The Heavenly Jerusalem will have come down from paradise and she will crush the head of the serpent with her heel. Then I will come back. Nevertheless, the battle will be tough, in hearts, for My triumph. And the battle in hearts will finish by manifesting itself with weapons in hand. I alone, Jesus-Christ, am able to give you peace upon earth, because I am the peace in your hearts

6 September 1999:

5. Jesus: Allow Me to guide you, so that you can be a shepherd of My flock.
6. Agnès-Marie: I don't understand, Lord, for me a shepherd is a priest.
7. Do you see how My shepherds take care of My flock? They betray Me, abandon Me, hate me, disfigure me, to finally bury me! Both in a figurative sense and in a real sense. So, I have decided in My Love and My Mercy to consecrate humble and loving souls, of My choosing and with My blessing, to make up for the betrayals and shortcomings of My priestly ministry. These are graces that I give to the world to save it. Who will awaken My people so that they remain alert like the wise virgins if not Myself, through the intermediary of instruments whom I choose for Myself? Instruments who are still within My Church, faithful to My Pope, and to My gospels, in the great tradition of the Saints of past epochs. I wish to guide each person to holiness. For this, I must make Myself known, so that no-one can give My people a false idol to adore in a false Church!
9. I have touched your heart, and I will touch many more hearts so that My reign comes. The purification which I call you to work for requires the call to conversion, i.e., orientation of the heart, like a radar, to My Heart. Humanity must retrace its steps in the direction opposite to that which it has taken since the Fall and Original Sin. For this I give My graces, My gifts (charisma), My faithful instruments, My zealous servants, through the gift of My Holy Spirit on your earth, in your times -- for the Second Pentecost has already commenced. Your hearts are the refuge of the 'Woman who flees into the desert'. My Church today, that which you call the 'true church', finds refuge and life in the hearts of those who are consecrated to the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary: behold, this is the little remnant. Let your hearts be a desert; a desert which is a protecting refuge for My Church and My Mother, a desert devoid of temptations, falsities, deceits and lies, a desert where I nourish you with the new manna: the Eucharist and 'every word that comes from the mouth of God'.
10. I am the King of Revelation. Today I call you to follow Me into the desert, during the time of the purification, before the rebuilding, at the 'political' level, as you call it: to rebuild the world by giving it holy institutions, and in recognizing Mary as Queen and Jesus as King.

11. Upon earth the symbolic finds ways of becoming real in form. In the rebuilding, the Reign of God will take place in hearts through conversion, and will then anchor itself in material reality by reorganization of relations through change in institutions. And for this I will give -- and I confirm it again -- the charter for the governments of peoples according to Jesus Christ, who I am. I will be your King and you will be My People. Together we will adore the Father, and thus will be the Reign of God on earth.

13. The organization, Mary Virgin of the Eucharist, will serve as a centre for spreading information: pilgrimage to Manduria, prayer groups, 'political' representation, etc., for the 'Movement of Love' in the heart of France, for Europe and then the world. I want to rescue My people from the claws of Satan, I want to give My people back their innocence which has been disfigured, their purity which has been sullied, and their love which has been perverted.

16 September 1999:

4. I 'seize' you at the foot of the Cross to raise you up to My Sacred Heart to conform you to Me, even unto the Cross, which is your immolation on the altar of love through prayer and penance as a work of redemption participating in My Resurrection. What 'seizes' you on the spot is the revelation of the mystery of the Cross; your entire being is 'seized' by the Holy Spirit in the face of the revelation of the love of God for you. And this 'seizing' of the soul opens for you the truth of My Sacred Heart, to eternal life in the Blessed Trinity, of Father, Son and Spirit. At the foot of the Cross, I give you Mary to take into your home, in other words, into your heart, like new Johns. Your hearts then become a refuge for the Woman in the desert and you clothe yourself for your priestly mission as sons of God, received in Baptism. This is why I said: 'If I want him to remain until I come ...', in speaking of John, and not 'He will not die'. John is each one of you who remains beside Mary, enveloped in her mantle, at the foot of the Cross, until I come. This is your hope, the promise that I made to you. I am coming back in Glory, in the hearts of all. Leave to My Holy Mother the possibility, by your commitment to Her design, of bringing you all to the foot of My Cross, where I can raise you up to the heart-to-heart with Me, which is My return in Glory. I associate Mary with My work of Redemption through Her participatory and suffering presence: the sword that wounds Her Immaculate Heart. To Her I confided the task of gathering My flock at the foot of the Cross. For many, this Cross is the ladder of Jacob. It is she who makes Heaven descend to earth. This Cross, that for some is a sign of contradiction, is the motive for joy for you. This Cross, object of scandal for the world, is the source of resurrection for you. The conversion of your heart, in other words, the orientation of your heart in the direction of the way that I am for you, takes place at the foot of the Cross. This Cross is like the lever of the switching points of a railway line!; conversion is the changing to another railway track! You were on the wrong track, the way of perdition prepared for you by My adversary and yours, and I put you back again on My way of life that leads you to the paradise of My Father. In this way you 'crucify' your passions, your will, your ambitions, your human will undermined by original sin, to conform you to your divinity of child of God redeemed by My Passion and exalted to the Resurrection. Conversion is hence comprehension, in a perfect commitment of your whole being to the Divine Will, of the redemptive dimension of carrying your Cross. Not that I am a God who likes to see you suffer, but because I can use suffering offered, made up of all the little things of your daily life on earth, to save humanity redeemed by My sacrifice. Each time you experience a pang in your heart in the face of contradiction, humiliation, doubt, incomprehension, dissatisfaction, frustration of your own desires, if you offer Me all these pains in your heart, I receive them as so many flowers in My royal crown and their perfume re-descends upon your poor humanity to help it to open its senses and its heart to My Presence of Love, to My Infinite Mercy. This is the odor of sanctity! This is the suave perfume that Mary offers, all pure, the ever virgin in her body, in her soul and in her Spirit! Her perfume agreeable to the Father is composed of all the fragrances that are the efforts of your souls offered in prayer and penance, in other words, in the carrying of your Cross, carried in the joy of identifying yourself thus in My image.

18 The sword which pierces the Holy Heart of My Mother is becoming the sword that Saint Michael the Archangel is brandishing in the battle. Redemptive suffering offered by Mary is becoming the weapon against Satan. Mary, conceived without sin, has been raised into Heaven and has been crowned Queen of Heaven and Earth. Her sword of sorrows is becoming the triumphant sword, and her Queenly scepter is the Rosary which she gives to each one of you. You must use this symbol of her power by praying the Rosary, as she never ceases to exhort you to do, in each of her manifestations upon the earth.

19. You who read these pages, understand that it is through your prayer, in great abandon and in the most humble offering of yourselves, that you will come to the realization of what I want. Let your actions be preceded by prayer, which will give them all their effectiveness. This 'Movement of Love' is a movement of the heart, an adhesion of the soul to My divine designs. Trust and have confidence, during the tribulations, in Jesus, who I am, for the Christ of God is with you. My Spirit breathes upon your souls in order to animate them with the holy zeal of the children of God. Be servant adorers of Jesus, little crosses offered through love for your brothers and sisters. Be those new missionaries who are now needed by the current state of the world; be the saints of the third millennium that John-Paul II, My beloved Pope, beseeches Me for, through the intercession of My Holy Mother, Mary, Virgin of the Eucharist and Daughter of Sion, Star of David, Mary, Holy Monstrance of her Son Jesus, Son of David, Blessed Olive Tree of Israel.

20. 'I have not come to abolish, but to accomplish the Scriptures' and 'I am the Alpha and the Omega'. All the prophecies announce the return of Israel to the bosom of the Father, My Sacred Heart. One can read of this in the Letter to the Romans.

21. The wild olive and the pure (virgin) olive -- Romans 11:16-24.

22. The conversion of Israel -- Romans 11:25-32. I will re-graft onto the olive tree the branches of Israel that were cut off.

23. Believe in the triumph of My Heart united with the Heart of Mary!

24. Let the entire world exult with joy! 'Alleluia, the Emmanuel is the conqueror, he remains with us and lights up our way! Alleluia, praise Him, all peoples of the earth praise Him!'

25. The Cross will triumph in Israel.

30 September 1999:

6. My daughter, do not be impatient, you will see the beginnings of glory; you will work for its coming through the work that I wish to realize through all those who read these messages. I have confided My Eucharistic Reign to you, and in it there is to be found My Glory. It is a divine desire confided to human hearts and hands that conform to My Holy Person. It is through you, your hearts burning with love for Me in Eucharistic Adoration of My Divine Person, that this reign can be established on your earth, in your time.

15 November 1999:

10. My Spirit is in My Word. Now, you have My Word, through the Gospels and through the messages that I give, which will remain with you. Do you now understand how I am able to say then that I leave you My Spirit? This means that what has been given to you will be left with you. The only manner that My Presence will have of coming on the earth will be by consecration of the Eucharistic species, and on the last day all the consecrated hosts, that are truly My Flesh and My Blood, will reform My Body in such a manner that I will live on earth amongst you: the Emmanuel.

11. There now, My Spirit has enabled you to grasp the truth, for you were looking for the link between the Ascension and Pentecost, the time during which I had left Mary with My apostles and My Eucharistic Presence that I promised you. This is the revelation of Manduria, Mary, Mother of the Eucharist, Monstrance of the Host, who I am. Today as yesterday, it is Mary, My Mother, who bears Me in Her heart in the time of absence. I also explain to you why (because you are so attached to your 'whys'). Mary has said in Medjugorje, in Manduria, and elsewhere that there will be a time when She will not be able to come nor to communicate Her messages. You have understood this, because this happens through the Spirit. On the other hand, believe well that this will be your strength in the tempest, where there is the Host there too is the Monstrance, She who presents Me to the world in Her Heart, the Mother of the Church. Yesterday as today, you will have the words that I dictated and Mary who bears Me within Herself; this is why I called Her the Holy Spokeswoman several days ago. She bears the Word who I am. She is also the Gate of the Word, because through Her I came, and through Her I will come back. I certainly said today and not tomorrow, because for Me, the times are already here. Trust, little flock, for your Shepherd watches over you by giving you, for these times, strong and faithful sheep, whether sacerdotal (priestly) or lay people, because through Baptism you are all priests, prophets and kings.

Jesus Christ

17 November 1999:

My Feast of Christ the King is approaching, and soon I will be this King that I want to be for every one of you, and My reign will be one of peace, of justice and of love for the Father and for your brothers and sisters. Just as I said 'Let yourselves not be called Masters, because there is only one Master' (I, the Christ), let Me also say 'Let yourselves not be called kings, because there is only one King and only one Kingdom', except he whom I will anoint Myself because he will then be King of My Kingship.

Jesus Christ

18 November 1999:

1. Come quickly, little soul, to meet Me again when your daily activities allow it. I am life and I nourish your soul in the moments when We are together. I know that quite often you are unable to make the image that you have of yourselves correspond with the image that I have of you, of your resemblance to the Father, and that of your interior life with the image that you have of yourselves. In truth, I tell you, your true King is Me, therefore cultivate your interior life because there is your treasure. Your materialistic treasures are only illusions that collapse like a house of cards when I 'shake' the earth a little!

Jesus Christ

5 December 1999:

3. From now on, the apostasy is accomplished, it is reaching its peak, and the abomination of desolation is on its way.

4. I have led you to read the book by the Marquis de la Franquerie titled 'La Mission Divine de la France' ('The Divine Mission of France') so that you might understand what concerns the Lieutenant of Christ. Now you know that this title designates the king of France, and you also know that this king of France must establish the reign of God upon the earth. Such is the divine mission of France, led by My Lieutenant. And France, no matter how low she falls, will rise up again under the leadership of this king, who I will set up at the appointed time by My special anointing, and he will lead the entire world and all the peoples of the earth in her wake. Everyone will recognize by signs that I will give, that this king will rise up as My Lieutenant, and he will avail Me of his arm and his voice so that at last the earth welcomes Me, so that I can establish My reign of peace and justice among My people. Neither David nor Solomon doubted the royal and sacerdotal anointing that was going to be given to them right up to the very moment when it was given. I am setting up kings Myself and I am coming 'like a thief', and nobody knows the hour and even less the one who has been chosen. This is possible, because when a soul is anointed it is, through special grace, entirely clothed with Christ, and takes on a particular character that completely surpasses what it was beforehand; the soul thereby assumes its true nature and full stature for its particular mission.

5. In the history that has been transmitted and taught to you in recent decades, the spiritual dimension that gives history its full dimension and justification no longer appears. God lives among His people as He has always done. Nevertheless, in your epoch, He has been and is being rejected like He has never been, and this requires reparation. And just as the Church asks for pardon for the errors in its history, I now ask, solemnly, that France does the same thing, in order to heal her wounds and to be able to live again under the particular blessings that My Father has accorded to this people, who He has so favored since the origin of time.

6. In a little while now, France will call upon this king who will bring her back to her true place in the heart of God, so that she accomplishes her divine mission to give Me to the world. Serious events are in preparation that will humble her pride, will show her fault to her, and will make her cry out to Me as her only Savior. Then I will send her whom I have reserved for this hour, his iron fist over hell will make it gnash its teeth, his word inspired by My Spirit will make hearts turn towards Heaven and towards eternal salvation from on-high. He will ask Me pardon for the faults of his country, and thus peace and justice will again prevail upon this earth. I speak of him saying that he will be the last of his race because his mission is to accomplish what the mission of his line has always been, the establishment of My reign of Glory. Through him and through Me, this will be.

7. Thus will I be, I, the Christ, the King of the world, that I already am in the celestial spheres, when the earth will have finally become reunited with Heaven through its commitment to My Royal Person of Son of God. The earth will be ready to begin its way of glory, having concluded the way of salvation [...].

8. David and Solomon lived according to the Word of God and from the outset, like all the people of that age, they were fully abandoned to Divine Will for them, hence I did not have to prepare them for their missions.

9. Each situation has its solution. Likewise I want to act with you, hence I adapt My pedagogy for everyone, according to what I have placed in them. This king will arise, whether he wants to or not, because I am the King of kings, and who will resist My call?

10. The calm before the storm announces the tempest. Beware, land of France, because I am sending My Spirit against you! Against your heart to clasp it to My Heart, if you welcome Me. Against your pride and arrogance, if you still refuse Me. No-one can remain undecided, you must choose and you must choose quickly, make up your minds now! Go in peace, it is I who dictate.

Jesus Christ

6 December 1999:

2. I am going to enter into the history of mankind again and each person will recognize Me as the Son of God and King of the Universe. I am coming to make Myself known in My glory, to again give you the Father.

4. Let Me make it clear, so that you understand well what I intend, that I will raise up a leader of the combat against evil, the leader of the crusade of love, following very serious events in France. I will give him victory and everyone will see that I am with him. I will then consecrate him King, so that finally he establishes My reign of peace and justice; only then will I be able to reign Myself because by then everyone will have made the interior progress necessary for the possibility of My coming. Then I will reunite, as you have understood, upon My head the royal crown and the papal tiara.

31 December 1999:

6. I am forming, that is to say bringing together, the 'army' which is going to combat the beast which has manifested itself upon the earth. This 'army' will not be just another beast but will be the Holy Lance of the Lord, composed of men (in French 'hommes' = men (generic), mankind, understood as 'men and women'): the cohort of Mary who will crush the beast with her heel. In mythology, Achilles lost through the only weakness in his symbolic 'armour': his heel. We, our 'army', are going to conquer by means of this heel, this 'weakness', all the evil forces that have been unleashed. The heel of Mary is composed of all Her little ones who are ready to consecrate themselves to this combat through their love for the Mother of God and the Trinity.

7. The first servant of Mary, My Lieutenant, is ready, the troops will assemble under My banner, and the combat will commence.

8. At the same time the 'Movement of Love' must come into action to support, through prayer, the action of the soldiers of Christ, the defenders of Christianity and the faith. Yes, this is the Great Crusade and the spiritual combat!

9. The breath of the Spirit will awaken his troops; those who are called will recognize one another and will assemble behind and around the one whom I will designate as their Leader; he who boldly marches forward, the servant of humanity, My king and My friend, My chosen son. As My Father placed His confidence in me, so I place my confidence in him.

Jesus Christ

16 January 2000:

1. Come and receive My blessing, come close to Me without any fear, so that I can give you the nourishment that you need: Myself. My nourishment is My Bread and My Word. I am the Bread of Life through My Eucharistic Body, I am the Word of Life through My incarnate Word. And My Word becomes incarnate through the little instruments that I choose for this purpose, thereby giving Myself through My Word to My people. To My priests is given the elevated and divine task of giving Me through My Bread to My people.

2. Priest to give the bread
Prophet to give the Word
King for Me.

3. Such is the promise of Baptism, such is the promise of God to His people. My people, I will make you priests, prophets and kings according to My Heart when you go down on the ground on your knees before your God.

Jesus Christ

27 January 2000:

9. Whoever will choose Me must, nevertheless, then pass through the purification, so that his heart is renewed and so that only lovers of the Lord remain on this earth, with their garments whitened in His adorable Blood.

10. Only then will this earth and its inhabitants be ready to commence the veritable history of humanity: its ascension towards the Father. For this, I have promised My people that I will guide them Myself, firstly by giving them a human leader who obeys Me, then by Myself being the head of this Mystical Body, which will find its unity again and then will be able to raise itself up to Heaven.

11. The restoration of your souls will commence, the rebuilding of the divine reign on earth aided by your celestial companions, the Angels, who will be made visible to your purified sight. You will see with the eyes of your spirit, all of you, what certain chosen souls who have received this grace can already see. What is grace today will be natural tomorrow. Other graces, even more profound and currently unimaginable, will hence be given to certain persons who will seek Me even more intensely.

12. Great upheavals are approaching. If you do not have the refuge of My Heart united with the Heart of Mary, you will not survive. The time for lenient and soothing discourses is over. My people must hear the voice of truth who I am. I no longer tolerate observing the never ending falsities that you are being fed under the guise of 'news'. I am going to raise My voice over the noise of your disordered conduct, I am going to form a reaction to falsities. Truth is going to be heard and no-one will be able to silence it. This is why I have sent My Archangel Michael to combat the enemy on his terrain through an ultimate political mission, because it is politics that manages the social life of humankind, what I call fraternity.

Jesus Christ.

28 January 2000:

9. Time is passing and the fulfillment of the prophecies is coming. You are in the last of the last times. You are the generation who will see My Glory with your eyes. You are My favorite children, created to welcome Me upon your earth, My chosen from all eternity for these times, yes, all of you, even those who today refuse Me, because the spirit of the world has chased Me out of their hearts, you were all created for this unprecedented time of glory for your earth. No creatures were ever loved by the Father more than this generation, who must receive Me. Your souls are precious and from all eternity have been set apart in the heart of God, hence because 'much has been given to you, much will be expected from you'. The love of predilection of My Father is quite demanding in His concern for perfection, this is why I do not want to let you be delivered up to My adversary through ignorance of My Word. I want to make My Voice heard throughout the entire earth. My voice will shatter mountains, will throw seas beyond their shores, and will make My gardens bloom again. You are going to live the era of the Spirit, even more than during the time of the first Christians who lived according to My Gospel, in the Spirit of truth with Mary as model. Even more, because the whole earth will have chosen the Gospels and the laws of God as the political model. What appears to you today to be utopia today will be reality tomorrow, thanks to you and through the Will of My Father. All sin will be wiped off the face of the earth and eradicated from the deepest recesses of your hearts. The universal and unalterable law of free will still prevail and the commandments of God will still be the love of God and the love of your neighbor; your free will will be oriented towards the Father, and then instead of materializing the potential of evil, you will work to grow in what is true, what is beautiful and what is good, all divine virtues of positive growth.

10. For a heart to grow in love and fidelity and to raise itself up to Heaven, it must let itself be seized by the Spirit and be led by God. What I do for a heart, I want to do for the whole of humanity. I want to lead the whole earth towards God and for this it is necessary to establish a holy government of the peoples of the earth. The institutions that are necessary for the management of the earth must be sanctified for the good of all and the Glory of God, because I want My Father to be able to glorify Himself through this earth that He gave to Me as well as to each one of you.

11. When every soul will be transparent crystal reflecting My Light, the earth too will be a crystal radiating thousands of fires of love throughout the world over which I have Heavenly Kingship.

12. After having given the king according to My Heart for the work of purification and sanctification, I will permeate all life - mineral, vegetable and animal, angelic and archangelic - with My Heavenly Kingship. My Divine Kingship will extend itself over every atom to divinize it a little more, to conform it to its origin: the Heart of the Father. In this way, the world will recover its original beauty as the Father conceived it, and as I expressed it, I the Word of God, through Our Holy Spirit.

13. In the bosom of the Trinity each one of the Three Persons of your God acts with the others: neither the Father, nor the Son, nor the Holy Spirit ever act alone, but always in union with the whole Trinity. We are God, each of Us individually and together. And I repeat 'No-one goes to the Father except through Me', by the grace of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus Christ

30 January 2000:

3. Today I call the world to conversion, to trusting God, to rejection of evil and Satan; I call all to work for the Kingdom. Two thousand years ago, certain people wanted to give me earthly royalty, but I knew that this would only be possible after the loving trial of the Cross, after the Resurrection and the Redemption of the world by My Holy Sacrifice, after Celestial Royalty had been conferred upon Me by My Father. But now is the time to assume this earthly royalty and so few wish to give it to Me! That is why, in order to avoid disturbing you too much, and before taking possession of My royal land (the earth), I wish to confide it to a man - the great king promised by all the prophecies. He will be king for Me, through Me, and with Me. He will make the transition between this generation of regicides and the generation that will adore Me in My Glory when I return to My earth, to be established -- uncontested -- as the Eternal King.

4. The time of My king will be a period of 'inter-reign' between that of Satan, in which you are living at the present time and which will soon crush you, and that of God through My Trinitarian Person. Because if I am the King of the earth, the whole Trinity -- Three-in-One-and-One-in-Three -- is your Suzerain (Lord). What I mean by 'inter-reign', to make Myself clear, is what I call the period of rebuilding of the world in the revelation of Manduria (op. cit.). This rebuilding of the world consists in establishing throughout the world the kingdom which will be transfigured by My corporal coming in order to conform with the Kingdom. I will re-unite in Myself the earth and Heaven in order to be able to offer this earth of rebellion and of the Cross to My Father so that He will be glorified in it and I in Him. I will have transformed, with each of your loving souls, this earth conquered by Satan, into a gift worthy of appearing before the face of God, because it will be entirely purified of its sins. I will then call you to help your king so that, with you and with Me, the Will of the Father will be done.

5. Each creature issued forth from the love of the Father, emanates from Him with its liberty, and is sent out from the bosom of the Father for a life, that, in its liberty, chooses to come back to God. Then the Father can glorify Himself in it. This life, a little removed from the Father, serves to enable the soul to exercise its liberty and to freely choose to return to the love of the Father. Du Bellay, in another domain, expressed this necessity well in his poem:

6. 'Happy the person who, like Ulysses, has made a long voyage and returns home totally worn out but full of good reasons to live amongst his loved ones for the rest of his years.'

7. The 'given' is becoming 'chosen', this is the justification of the way of the Cross of life. To be the Son of the Father was given to Me; through the Cross I confirmed My own choice and I affirmed My will to do that of My Father, which is to be His Son. And so it is for each person. Unfortunately your capacity to make the choice has been denatured by the irruption of Satan in human history. Hence I am coming to re-establish the equilibrium on the day of My Justice, which is coming. I will take sin away from the surface of the earth so that your choice can be made without interference. This choice is acceptance of the Will of God, it is the abandonment to the Will of God that I recommend to you. There is no other way.

I Myself am 'the stone rejected by the builders'; I have lived this abandonment in My own flesh in a most painful way; I have experienced the anguish of abandonment in order to sanctify abandonment and to make of it a way of returning to the Father. I have reversed the meaning of abandonment: in place of it signifying 'solitude', it now means 'way towards the Father'. I incarnate this abandonment, this confidence (trust) in the Father, and this is why I am 'The Way'. The more you are abandoned by men (and women), the closer you are to God, because 'what is folly in the eyes of men is wisdom in the eyes of God'. That is why I tell you to have no fear of assisting this king who will rise up in My name and who I will establish over humanity, and in such a stunning manner that no-one will contest the royalty that I confer upon him. Today in your society it is folly in the eyes of men to speak of 'king by divine right', but it is truly wisdom in the sight of God. ... My Cross is the symbol of spiritual combat; that is why I want it to be placed upon the royal flag, as well as on the logo of the association (of the Christian Renewal Movement), as well as on the cover of this book. I am deliberately establishing a link between this book, the 'Christian Renewal Movement' which will ensue from it, and the future emblem of the royalty that I announce. My Cross has always been an 'object of scandal', 'folly in the eyes of men'! And, for a time, this is what it will be like for this book, for the association, and what is more, for the announcement of the return of 'royalty by divine right' to this country (France).

But why should it be of concern for you, for this is the Will of the Father! Why should scandal bother you, because you have the truth which sets you free! Why should you be concerned about mockery, because on the Day of the Lord, you will be justified. All the lies and deceptions of today are of no importance, because you will have the Joy of the Kingdom of God for this edification of the kingdom and none will be able to harm you! St. Paul invites you to 'clothe yourselves with Christ'. I call upon you to take up and clothe yourselves with the Cross of Christ, and if this reminds you of the Crusaders, then you have understood everything. This is the Word of the Lord. Amen.

Jesus Christ

31 January 2000:

3. Today, I am helping you to create a pole of resistance to the infernal aspirations of your being, of your culture, of your religion, of your society, of your country, and even of your planet, through the demons which have now spread everywhere on the earth, like the seven plagues of Egypt!

4. Have confidence (trust) in this movement which is taking shape, which spreads My word, so that you are again encouraged by My voice, before it thunders out against you and this proud and rebellious humanity. I do not want any soul to be lost through ignorance, but only through their own conscious and voluntary choice to follow Satan.

7 February 2000:

2. The warnings have not finished. Understand well that your lack of faith and tepidity are the reason for these warnings, the purpose of which is to open your eyes and your hearts to the truth. So long as the people of France have not bent their knees before God, their Creator, I will continue to send severe warnings until the hour fixed by the Father for the day of Justice, the day of the Lord, who is coming. It is the Day of Yahweh of the Old Testament. soon everyone will see me in the Glory of My Resurrection!

8 February 2000:

13. In the darkness, My light will reside in your hearts. Do not be afraid of the 'three days in the tomb' that I announce to you, which will precede My return in Glory in your hearts. This time will be incomprehensibly terrible for the impious, and painful for those who love Me, but the latter will nevertheless rejoice in the hope of My coming. It will be painful for the children of the light because they will suffer the apparent triumph of darkness. But I tell you that after these days will come the triumph of Mary, as she has promised. The triumph will be the triumph of humility over the proud satanic rebel and his henchmen. The Woman in her weakness is going to cast down the Dragon because she will again give to the world Her Son, who is the 'Light of the World'. Mary, perfect creature formed in the Holy Trinity, will again present Her Son to the world, which has already seen Him born, through the hearts of those who have responded to His calls, untiringly repeated, for the conversion of hearts.

14. The Father allows this trial and gives grace in superabundance. And Mary is this grace of the Father for your times which are captive in the bondage of darkness.

9 February 2000:

Jesus:

2. The Father loves each soul with a Love that is unimaginable for you who are so limited in your capacity to love, because of your materialistic shackles, psychological wounds in which Satan makes himself master of your spirit when it is not protected by prayer and faith, and incapacity to interiorize in the meeting with God. Because the meeting with God, through Me, is approaching inevitably. Hence there is no use in behaving as if you do not receive My words in the depths of your hearts.

Mary:

7. My daughter, welcome My message for My people of Mary, who are the people of France, through choice of predilection of the Lord our God.

8. People (sons and daughters) of France, I cry tears of blood and oil on your soil because of your sins ... I am sad because of your conduct ... humble yourselves and rectify your refusal to serve your God, before He makes you swallow your pride. If He has still not judged and punished you, it is thanks to the tears that I have shed for you and the prayers of My cohort of little ones whom you despise and oppress. Once again, I come to beseech your noble sense of pride and self respect to recognize the greatness of God the Creator of all lives. The Heart of the Father is saturated with your insolence and saddened by your conduct. Look, even whole mountains of rock split asunder before Him, and it will be the same for your hearts if you do not open them up yourselves. Look and meditate on the signs that the Father is giving your country to invite you to repentance and pardon. My Motherly Heart suffers from the indifference of your children and from the pain of so many of My little ones before the state of their country. 'France, eldest daughter of the Church, what have you done with your Baptism?' You will have to answer this question that I asked you through the mouth of My Pope (John-Paul in 1980), who you work to suppress! Your iniquity will be unmasked, the fraud of your governments will be exposed to the light of day, the revolt of your Church made plain for all to see.

9. I have My faithful children pray for you and from you will come he (the coming King) who will reduce your pride and haughtiness to nothing, and he will raise you up from your ruin, he whom My Son has chosen to lead you to the Father so that the Reign of God comes, and through you, upon the earth.

10. From the mud the light will burst forth, through the grace of the Holy Spirit! Amen.

Mary, Mother of France and the lands (regions) of your country.

10 February 2000:

1. My child, I bless you for coming to write with Me when you can. Because My book must, of course, be finished for it to be distributed, so that the world hears My voice before My return in glory in the hearts of all.

2. Everything has been said, My children. God can but exhort you to conversion, which will keep your heart in peace in the torment that is being announced. Once again, let Me make it clear for you, I speak in the literal as well as in the symbolic sense. The torment that I am announcing is a number of things, as follows. Climatic conditions, that are coming upon you because of your submission to Satan. It is you yourselves who have created it through your hatred (lack of love) and divisions. It is also due to war. The spirit of discord makes its cacophony resonate and people throw themselves upon one another tormented by this 'noise'. The torment is also and especially the imminent consummation of the abomination of the desolation. Satan, who directs 'the beast with two horns' (ecclesiastic freemasonry), will sit for a very short time - because I will not put up with it - on the throne of Peter. This short period will be terrible. I confirm it again for you, to enable you to live in perfect trust, for the little number of My true friends will be raised up to Heaven in the refuge of the United Hearts of Mary and Jesus for the duration of the abomination. Yes, I will remove you from the earth and you will not set foot on it again until it has been purified from evil and sin, because your souls, having seen and adored God, will henceforth only be able to live on a purified earth. This is why My children, those of you who are already purified through My grace, find it so difficult to put up with living in this world of darkness, you who bear the Light in your hearts, the Light of the world who I am. Continue bearing this Cross with Me until I make My Cross appear in the Heavens: the sign of the Son of Man, the sight of which will make the impious bend their knees and change their hearts choked by rage at the sight of My victory. They will see My Glory and will die of rage from it, Satan at the head of his cortege of proud and arrogant souls. It is Satan who brought death upon the earth, it is from sin that death comes. What he sowed will turn back upon himself and then 'there will be no more death' because I am life.

3. The life that awaits you, that which humanity would have known if Adam and Eve had not let themselves be seduced by the Devil, is marvelous. It is the life of the soul intimately linked with the Heart of the Father. You will be truly alive in the grace of the Holy Spirit of God who will reign. Divine Wisdom will reign! What a marvel, this life of the Spirit, for every soul faithful to Christ!

4. You will not recognize either your soul or your body, transfigured by My coming in Glory.

5. Nevertheless, as I have told you, the spiritual combat of the Will to love and of peace will continue. You will be assisted in this by the angels and the saints of Heaven made visible to your eyes. They will help you rebuild your houses, your villages and your churches, if not you might be discouraged in the face of the enormity of the task! You must learn to live in grace, to live in love, with My Presence planted like a cross in your hearts.

6. You will be the 'little remnant' of Israel, you will follow the king of My Heart that I will have given you during the most somber days of the preceding period. He will lead you to the promised land that is My Reign visible on your earth. I am coming to purify bodies, souls and the earth to receive Me in all My Glory.

7. The New Pentecost is approaching; call upon the Holy Spirit with all your heart, with all your soul; call upon My Wisdom that is coming to prepare My coming; with your entreaties bring down the heavenly Jerusalem.

8. I have said to you, My Word is complete, I have forewarned you, notified you, guided you for the tribulation. You know all the events that are coming, even if you cannot perceive them in a clear order or cannot conceive of their coming! The truth will remain veiled until I come.

9. I will give My prophets and your king the graces necessary for each day to lead you and to help you understand events as they take place, so that you know where God wants to lead you.

10. I gave graces to your forefathers, Moses and Aaron, graces to bring them out of Egypt and to lead them to the Promised Land. I am doing the same thing for you who are My people. My king, to guide you as Moses did, is also a prophet: God speaks through his mouth, by My Spirit. The Pope of the new times, a new Aaron, will transmit My word for the Church. Do not forget that Aaron was a priest, and I also spoke through his mouth. Since that time it has been necessary for mankind to have a temporal guide and a spiritual guide, enlightening each other until I come to reunite Heaven and earth upon your earth. I will reunite in Myself the royal crown and the papal tiara after the crossing of the desert. Then truly Christ will reign and the Will of the Father will be done. Do not forget that the Hebrews spent forty years in the desert and they lost courage and faith. Today, the earth and its people, once purified, will not fall, because evil will have been effaced from your hearts and from the surface of the earth.

11. Nevertheless, the tribulation of the chosen people will be a spiritual combat to stay in the Heart of God and to win the promised land of the reign of God.

12. The New Pentecost is coming and the Spirit is coming down from Heaven. Call Him down upon you so that He purifies your heart before the Day of the Lord who is coming.

13. To explain the necessity of the tribulation between My return in glory in your hearts and My Divine Reign upon the earth, let Me simply remind you of the requirement for reparation for sins after they have been forgiven.

14. The Great Pardon (repentance and forgiveness) is approaching, just after the purification, then there will be the time of restoration, the re-building of the world. At last I will take possession of My earth which will then be worthy of welcoming the Reign of God for eternity.

15. My blessed daughter, you are soon going to take My Word out to the world. You are going to see that everything that I have promised you will be put in place, you will see the signs of My Glory and My Providence will guide you in everything. Continue to abandon yourself to My Will which is that of My Father, in all serenity, in confidence and trust. I am leading you, always in My Heart, because I want to give you to My people. My chosen souls are always completely given over to the service of God. In the place of wolves, I will place two lambs, backed up by My faithful sheep, at the head of My people.

16. Write: I will soon lead you to the Holy Gethsemane of the earth, because you must make known, with My priest whom I will give to you, the revelation of Manduria that is to save your country. By solemnly consecrating France to Mary again, this time under her title of Virgin of the Eucharist, the apostasy will be conquered. The foyer of the 'Movement of Love' of faithful adorers of Jesus will come into being, everything is being put in place for this, and the 'Christian Renewal Movement' which is parallel with it will be able to begin its work. Again, spiritual action and temporal action supporting each other, and which I will reunite in My Holy Government: My reign of Christ the King.

17. I will give you the supports necessary for My work with you. You know that I provide for everything! I want My voice to be heard throughout this country where you live (France) and also throughout the entire continent united with it. I want My people to know that I am coming to re-establish My Kingship on this terrain (land), which must also serve as the pedestal for My Glorious Cross.

18. I now give My conclusion to this work. A conclusion that marks the commencement of My work of glory:

Child of God you who hear My voice carry your cross with Me so that the Glorious Cross of the Lord who is coming reigns over this country and this people.
Believe in all of these messages and especially, pray, pray, pray.
Sons and daughters of France and Europe, pray to your King to give you the king according to His Heart that He promises you.
Your salvation is in his hands
because upon him I have lain My hands.
My reign is coming.
And I am coming now
Amen.

Jesus Christ
King of Heaven and Earth.

(This completes the messages that were published in the first two French editions of 'Joy of God'.)

1 May 2000: Message given for the public meeting at Les Sables d'Olonne (France).

6. This congress taking place in France will launch My call to the people of France to return to their Mother, to their Christ, to their God, under the influence of the Spirit. Through this congress, I am forming My lance against the attacks of My adversary; I am launching the crusade; I am sending you out to speak to My people of France to exhort them to conversion. I am calling together a number of prophets so that, through those parts of My messages destined for each person, the greatest number of hearts will be touched, some by the announcement of My Tenderness, some by My Joy, some by the witness of the Motherhood of Mary, some by the revelation of Manduria.

9. ... All who are present at this congress will be called to witness to the graces received, and to make known My Will for this country (France), of which My Mother is Queen.

10. You will read the message of My Archangel St. Michael to the people assembled on that day because the parish which welcomes you is dedicated to him. You will announce to My people that I am coming to give it the king according to My Heart who will lead them to Me. I want you to explain My Will to intervene in your political institutions. I want you to speak about the combat with freemasonry at the political level, by reading the messages wherein I explain what I mean by this message. I want you to lay out a canvas of what awaits it: victory in the combat, My return in the hearts of all that I am now commencing, the new earth and the new heavens, and everything that I have said to you about the period of inter-reign, followed by what I have said to you about My visible Reign of Glory upon the earth. I want the organizers to allocate the afternoon of the 1st May for you to do this because, at the close of this congress, I want everyone to go away filled with abundant graces in the Joy of God, and in the hope and certitude that God is intervening in history to save His people. Prepare to take with you thousands of copies of My book 'Joy of God', so that, thanks to My messages, each person can witness and spread the message in their families, in their prayer groups, in their parishes, in every place where they can announce My message of joy.

11. This book is a gift of My Sacred Heart to France, because the eldest daughter of the Church must open its heart and its arms to Me so as to prepare itself for My Coming in Glory in the hearts of all.

12. I am coming through this congress, to awaken the workers for the harvest. I extend the widest invitation possible to My children of France to come to this meeting, and let the organizers foresee a large crowd, more like 5000 than 500, to give an estimate of the likely numbers, ... and also for you to meditate on the multiplication of the loaves! Amen.

11 June 2000: Message given for the public meeting at Saint Mars-la-Jaille (France).

8. Why are you so asleep? Why do you not accept, with Joy, the truth that sets you free. I tell you, it is through you, through your consecration of your will to the Will of the Holy Trinity that Peace, Happiness and Joy will come into your hearts, and then upon the earth.

9. My children, I am the Joy of God, I am His Only Son, offered up for you, and resurrected in Glory for ever. I am the Joy of God, and what I have given to this little soul who speaks to you in My name, because it is I who asked her to do this, is My Plan of Love for your country and for the world. It is My Plan to simultaneously act at two levels. Firstly, at a Spiritual level, through the Movement of Love linked with the revelation of Manduria. And secondly, in the heart of which, at a more concrete level of combat against evil, through the Christian Renewal Movement. This will take place on the very terrain of the adversary, but with the weapons of Heaven, which are the Sacraments of My Catholic Church, prayer, the Rosary, Consecration to the Two United Hearts of Jesus and Mary, the communion of saints, and obedience to My Heavenly Father.

9 July 2000: A special exhortation

3. Furthermore, understand well why Mary insists on fasting, Confession (the Sacrament of Reconciliation) and prayer. These are the three means of purification which prepare you to welcome My Glorious Presence. By fasting you purify your bodies, which little by little become 'holy temples agreeable to the Father'. By the Sacrament of Reconciliation you purify your souls and obtain forgiveness for your sins. Thus, I am at the present time insisting everywhere on this particular matter because I am preparing you for My Glorious Return in your hearts. Purify your bodies and your souls. Through prayer, the Spirit comes down upon you, and in elevating your spirit, purifies your ideas, your thoughts and your intelligence. See how, in calling you to purification of body, soul and spirit, it is man himself who is invited to make himself worthy of the Lord, to open his heart to the Lord and to praise Him in spirit.

14. The missionaries who I send out into the world to make bloom the 'new springtime of the Church' are hence valiant soldiers of Christ, men and women committed to following Me, the unique combat of which is the conquest of hearts, with a view to establishing the civilization of Love which will welcome My Reign of Glory, My Reign of Christ the King.

15. These missionaries, 'elite soldiers', are those who have chosen the 'the little way of spiritual childhood', that of total abandonment to God. In this way I am able to lead them. It is not sufficient for Me that such souls would only be missionaries from time to time, no! I ask for a firm and definitive commitment because 'whoever is not for Me is against me'. That is why I ask My friends to commit themselves in the Movement of Love of Eucharistic Reparation and to a regular and demanding spiritual life. Because I want people to say when they see you - 'it is God Alive'. ...

16. To love one's neighbours means to provide for their welfare in the threefold totality of their being – body, soul and spirit. It also means asking for and exercising the gifts (charisma) that the Lord confers upon you. To love one's brother or sister means to bring him or her to hear and understand the Truth which makes one free, to open their eyes to deceptions and lies which wound them, which wound the society of mankind and the universal Church. To love one's brother and sister also means to be preoccupied with setting up a holy organization of society, one pleasing to God, one which is based on the Love of God and one's neighbour; one which enables everyone to commit to walking along the path of humility, of love and of holiness, one which respects and loves one's brother or sister.

17. Just as the first commandment is to love God, and the second is to love one another as I have loved you, unto death on the Cross. Likewise the first commitment is to God, hence spiritual, that of the Movement of Love of Eucharistic Reparation that I ask of you, and the second commitment is 'political', in the Christian Renewal Movement' which I will activate soon. For this, I must first of all have your commitment of love towards God. I desire that you abandon your heart in confidence to My Will, so as to be able to give you to the world as 'yeast in the dough' of human society, so as to make of it a real fraternity in Christ.

18. My children, I am looking in these times of yours, which are the times of the judgment of nations, for 'builders of Love' and 'artisans of Peace' so that with Me you can build the civilization of Love, which will bring down the Heavenly Jerusalem and will lead you along the road of Glory through My Reign of Justice, of Peace and Love.

19. Therefore, I ask you to be such missionaries for Me, 'builders' and 'artisans', 'workers for the harvest', 'servant adorers' and 'servants of the Lord', that I need to accomplish this work.

20 November 2000: Give Joy to Your Mother Mary and consecrate your nations to her.

1. I am looking for souls who know how to be guides, unshakeable in their faith, even in the depths of the 'dark night of faith' now enveloping all of humanity.

2. I am also forming those of you who read or hear these Words (these messages) that I give you, in these times of the climb up the Hill of Calvary which is coming for My Church.

3. O, how the indifference of our cherished children on earth rends and wounds My Heart and the Immaculate Heart of My Holy Mother. Yes, mankind has forgotten God. Love is no longer loved.

4. My dear children, think frequently of consoling My Heart, by your acts or reparation for the outrages of the world, and you will make Mary happy.

9. My dear children, My Father, by these messages that I give you, wishes to soften your hearts, to open them up to the whole Truth, to lead them to reparation through adoration and to a greater love for God in His Holy Trinity. Because only such love that you would have for God will lead you to real love and true fraternity among yourselves, in Jesus Christ. Do not think that you can build a new world without placing God at the heart of your lives, at the heart of your families, at the heart of your parish and town communities, and at the very heart of each of your nations.

10. I invite each nation to solemnly consecrate itself to the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary, as My Pope (John-Paul II) consecrated the third millennium, and to make this consecration known to the world by officially placing the symbol of our Two Hearts surmounted by a Cross on your national flags.

11. Why are the voices of My friends so silent or stifled? Why are they not raised more often and more powerfully in the parliaments and assemblies of leaders and decision-makers of your nations? Why are the voices of the friends of Christ almost extinguished? Might you have become lukewarm? Might you be going down the path of accepting compromises which are more like surrender of principles? Might you have become weak, cowardly, afraid?

12. My friends, My children, does no-one stand up in the parliaments and governing bodies of your nations, of your cities, to speak in My Name? Arise children, STAND UP, GET ON YOUR FEET! The Kingdom of God is built every day through profound prayer in the depths of your hearts, and is manifested in the world by your actions.

15. You are to read this message at each of the forthcoming public meetings that you will attend (Translator's note: the three large public meetings that took place in France on 1 May, 11 June, and 12 November 2000). Furthermore, I will also give you a specific message (for each meeting). This is My call to awaken and mobilize My children who are called to work in My Christian Renewal Movement so that they understand My Will. Understand well the signal given by My Pope during the Jubilee Year in placing the political world under the patronage of St. Thomas More, who preferred to serve Christ at the cost of his life rather than the king who wanted to arrogate for himself power over the Church. The State ought to serve the Church, not the Church serve the State!

25 November 2000: Brussels

9. Pray, My children, for the present leaders of your country, and also pray for the generation that will rise up, under the action of My Holy Spirit, to renew the face of the earth, by adopting the only rule for political life that is holy: 'Serve God by serving others, so as to establish the Reign of Christ the King'.

10. Yes, My children, certain among you feel compelled to serve Me in this way by serving others, and their nations, with the unique purpose of bringing about the Kingdom of God upon the earth. I bless you.

24 March 2004: (for the Christian Renewal Movement)

1. Now, my daughter, allow Me to give you a Word (message) for My children of the Christian Renewal Movement (in France).
2. Sons and daughters, you who have responded to My call in your lives, I do not leave you without nourishment for your souls. Though it seems I might have been silent, I have nevertheless spoken to your hearts in other ways. I now want to speak to you again this way (through the dictated word).
3. Children, in order that the national vow which I ask you for can take root in your country, I ask for a special consecration of your persons, your families, and all that is yours to Christ the King, who I am. Let your souls aspire more and more every day for My Divine Reign over your country. Be the people whose complete and trusting offering allows My Reign of Christ the King to come down upon the eldest daughter of the Church.
4. I remind you of your vow to rebuild My church dedicated to Christ the King (Translator's note: the sanctuary built, at the request of Christ the King, in Paris, between 1935 and 1956, subsequently demolished in 1977). Not only do I accept it, but I engage you from now on to making it a reality, firstly in a spiritual way through unity of your consecrated hearts, and then in a concrete way when the site has been given to you. Resurrect the plans that were given to Sister Olive of Christ the King (Messenger of Christ the King, 1906-1968) and make of yourselves builders for the love of your God. Take on the responsibility of this My request for your time. It will not be said that the Impious One prevailed against the plans of the Lord! 'This temple which was destroyed I will rebuild in three days'. My friends, do not be like those who refused to build the Cross that I asked for (Translator's note: apparently the Cross of Dozulé). Act boldly on behalf of your God and His angels will be with you to accomplish the work asked for. Rebuild My chapel of Christ the King and I will rebuild My reign over your country: I will give you My king to rule over you.
5. Children, through this request, I want to re-establish My alliance -- My covenant -- with your country. Do not let My Heart down, do not delay My plans. I love you and I beg you for your love. Christ the King of your souls and your nation, I truly will be in your adhesion to My divine plans.
6. May divine joy be in your hearts, from today and forever.

Jesus Christ, Lord of Lords and King of Kings.

17 September 2004:

1. The desire to serve Me for My Glory and the Greatness of My Name incites you onwards and this is a reason for My joy because I want there to be many more like you. Yet, children, understand that today Time is as if frozen by the coldness that My enemy and yours spreads in hearts. Time is frozen, the hand of Justice of My Father weighs poised above this glacial world, yet nothing moves, a deafening silence reigns, a stupefying silence, an oppressing silence. Where are the proud soldiers of the King of France? Where are the Valiant Knights ready to rise up for the defense of the Kingdom? My children, where are your hearts? Busy with your affairs or Mine? I do not hear an immense clamor that should be rising to My ears for your deliverance. I do not hear France crying out to Me. What is she doing? She is waving flags. She is deluding herself. She is congratulating herself. She is erring, eternally pretentious. In a word, she is becoming lost. Freely, knowingly, through revolt against her King who I am. Am I going to tolerate this for long, do you think? No, My daughter, no. I, Your King of Glory, tell you that My Justice is going to pass over this kingdom of blind and dumb subjects. What will My Justice do? It will judge, it will weigh up, it will overturn, it will prune. My Justice will pass and My Kingdom will be purified. And I will be King and My people will acclaim Me for My Mercy because Justice and Mercy are the two cutting edges of the same sword.

Jesus, King of France

11 August 2005:

1. Do you not see the coming events on the march every day that passes? Do you not perceive the imminent end of this abject world dominated by My adversary and yours? The perfidious race is none other than the guiding hand in your political societies of he who stands behind all works of contemptible actions and falsities seeking to destroy Me in the hearts of My children. This is why I am coming to establish My Reign of Justice and Peace, this is why I am coming to establish My Divine Kingship over all the Nations, this is why I need France and the special influence of its royal race to extend itself over every Nation. The royal root stock of France has been preserved in My Heart, and I alone will raise up he whom France is waiting for: the great King who will lead her from darkness to her eschatological mission, namely, the establishment of the Social Reign of Jesus Christ, King of the Nations, over all lands. Then and only then the beginnings of My Glory will come to the light of day so much awaited. Then will appear My Day, the Day of justice, if there be such a thing!

2. Daughter, do not seek so much to penetrate the secrets of the precise unfolding of events but rather observe how they are taking place in History. Yes, the events are on the march, they are unfolding before your eyes, be attentive to the signs of My Work in the world. The great indispensable purification is touching all Nations and peoples, and not one will be spared. I have already spoken to you about the time of the purification of Nations. This is the ultimate purification that is to lead the peoples to call for the official proclamation of My Divine Kingship over all flesh and all the more so over all Nations. I am the Lord of all Nations as well as Lord over the souls of all the peoples they consist of. The proclamation of My Kingship will give back to France its royal root stock and the kingship will be re-established, and the people of France will recover from their Luciferian nightmare in which they are currently wandering. I repeat, you are in the heart of events but they are progressing with the rhythm of history, and even accelerating, for this rhythm is slow for those who are burning with zeal for My House! But nevertheless, the time for the events of the end of Nations is now here before you. The time of purification before regeneration in the Blood of the Lamb. Understand whoever can. I bless you.

Jesus Savior of Nations and Lord of Time

3 December 2005:

4. Here is My word for this evening: Do not listen to the fearful, for they flee from everything, so you must go into the combat, strong in My Strength. Use the weapons I have given you and protect yourself from the enemy.

5. Lord, why these Words this evening?

6. Because the hour of the Great Combat is approaching and I want you at the heart of the struggle for My Rights over your Nation. I am coming to claim My Heritage and you will press for what I am asking for. It will concern a political act of great import. This act surpasses a simple act of consecration and the graces associated with it too will be of great import.

7. Children, a Voice must rise up in this Nation to re-establish the Truth and it must be done publicly and fearlessly. I repeat, it concerns a political act and not a simple devotion, even public and national.

8. The Reign of Christ the King must begin through France. I will give a clear sign attesting to My Right as Suzerain over your land, and no-one, except through dishonesty, will be able to ignore it. You are My messenger in all that concerns My Right as Suzerain, do not be unaware of this.

9. I remember Your Word, Lord, and I trust You. Give the order and You will be King in the face of incredulous people. Accomplish Your Word, Lord, and use me if such is Your Will. I am aware of my state of being a mere worm but I know Your Splendor. May Your Reign come!

10. Thank you, little daughter of My Heart, I am King in your heart forever and I will establish My Kingship before all peoples. I bless you.

Jesus King of Nations

16 May 2006:

1. My Lord, You want to give me Words concerning France, I am listening.

2. Daughter, write:

3. The storm is above your heads. You have dismissed all the helping hands that have been held out to you, you have rejected all the propositions, and now I can do nothing more. My children of France, tomorrow you will cry bitterly for having refused to listen to all the calls to conversion that I have made converge upon your Nation. I can do nothing more and no-one will intervene further for your defense before My Father. Apostate France, today you are renouncing all that made and all who made the greatness and the glory of your name!

4. I have said it, the storm is over your heads, children of France. The consequences of your choices over decades, you now have them before your eyes: an entirely disordered society wherein violence is unleashed in all its forms. Yet, you still have seen nothing of what hatred can produce. Now wait for a worse outbreak, many times greater than the number and scale of problems experienced recently. Yes, your cities and your cars will go up in smoke; your children tracked, from the wombs of their mothers, will be prey to all sorts of demons; your politicians, who already display the spectacle of their powerlessness, will leave you on your own, without doing or saying anything to bring you a radical solution to the loss of direction of your country. On the contrary, all kind of laws, more and more iniquitous, will gradually tie you up more every day in the face of those who have resolved the destruction of this country. This, already well advanced, will not end without a very serious and desperate crisis. No-one will intervene to help you because other nations will have their hands full dealing with their own problems.

5. My children, you, nevertheless, must not sink into despondency, because you know that in the midst of the worst chaos I will send he who must raise up, set right again and redeem France in the eyes of God. Yes, I will send he who must bring back to Me this lost and battered flock of France, and you must follow him. There will be much weeping and gnashing of teeth because his hand will be firm and inflexible and he will re-establish the order and the cult of God in the pagan Nation brought forcibly to its knees by its enemies. Beware, the enemy forces at work in the shadows are going to drop their masks soon, and you will know whom you have to deal with, without hatred but with determination. The trap that is to destroy My Nation of France is closing relentlessly, the destroyer fangs are tearing at what remains of her corpse because for a long time now My France no longer exists. She is dead and buried under the debris of the Masonic republic. France refused its public homage to Joan the Maid of Orleans (Joan of Arc). Apostate France only honors shoddy heroes and foul deceivers. Its real heroes, she buries. But they will come out of the tomb on the day of the resurrection of France, because I will resurrect the fatherland of Clovis and Clothilde, the fatherland that caused so many problems for Joan and so many others. I will resurrect her and she will extend My Reign over the whole earth. Let arise he who I am asking to defend My possession! Let arise those who have promised Me their aid in this hour! Let form the ranks of My armies. Let not a single one of My friends mistake the combat, because, today, to save the remains of France is to fight for God.

6. From now on all sovereignty of your Nation will be dissolved in the enlarged Europe that, like an octopus, is trying to extend its tentacles to territories that have nothing to do with it. Tomorrow, France, Masonic and dead, will not even belong to herself. Tomorrow ... the mortuary corpse of My France will be sold to the very ones who killed her.

Jesus Christ, King of France

17 May 2006:

1. France, the days of the great anathema are now coming. You are trembling, frivolous and feeling chilly, when only the holy fear of God ought to make you tremble! Why not tremble today! Because tomorrow this holy trembling will not be allowed you, for you will collapse when the enemy raps the knockers of your doors ... until I send to you he who is to lift you out of your tomb. Then you will flourish again, as in the most beautiful age of your life. O! France, it has been a long time coming for Me to see your lofty brow nobly wearing My Crown! How sweet it is for Me to remember your kings and your saints who, thread by thread, wove the robe of your glory. O! France, how My Heart leaps with joy at the thought of the Blessing Ceremony that will accompany your re-birth! But, O! France, in Truth, what remains of your people at the present time? Where are your armies and your soldiers? Where are your defenders of the Church? The echo of their cries is no longer heard from your mortal remains. Have you even heard the deafening silence that is all that reaches Me from your people? O! France, come, be born again! Be reborn and rise from your ashes! Come back to life! Pick yourself up! Without you the world dies of asphyxia. France, how sweet is your name and how sweet to the heart of every Christian in the world. This sweet name must be seen anew beside Mine, eternally, as My most beautiful trophy, My most perfect Treasure.

2. But, France, without your people, what remains of you?

3. And you, people of France, without your fatherland, what remains of you?

4. People of France, the land that I gave to your fathers is the last thread that links you to Me today. Tomorrow, the thread cut, you will err (lose your way) in wandering (having become lost) upon your own land of which you will be denied priority of occupation and inalienable ownership. Will you let yourselves be stripped, with the inane smile upon your lips of someone who does not understand the affront of being maliciously stripped? Will you let yourselves be dispossessed of your land?

5. People of France, you must now pluck up almighty courage and fight for your fatherland and to renew the thread of history with Me your God and Father. But, O! My people, a powerful new burst of energy is needed, an extra charge of willpower and tenacity, and especially the certitude of acting in all justice, and I am coming to show you how to do it. Found yourselves upon My Word to recover and defend your heritage. Stop listening to the vain discourses of men who discredit themselves day after day and who today believe themselves to be at the head of your country; they are only the tip of the Masonic world plot against Me, I who am the Lord of the Nations.

5. Lord of the Nations, I am and they will know it!

6. Lord of My chosen nation of France, I am in more than title: I am so by Right, I am so by Blood, I am so by Heart. Who, then, will deny Me the Right, the Blood and the Heart?

7. Lord of the people of France, I am also! And it is by this title, O! People, that I will save your fatherland.

8. Lord of France, I am and it is by this title, O! France, that I will save your people.

9. Hence, you France, and you, the people of France, united anew under My Staff of Good Shepherd, you will honor My Holy Name before all peoples, and in this way My Divine Reign will extend itself over this earth that is also Mine (note the title the Lord signs this message, below).

10. For the time being, My children, prepare yourselves for the great combat. The tyrants will not let their prey go easily now that they have it clenched in their powerful fangs. But what do the ferocity and bitterness of the battle matter because Justice is established and the victory is thus assured?

11. My Words must reach all My people of France in order to establish them in their justice and to give them the order for the assault:

To the battle, for France and the King!

12. My blessings extend from age to age upon all those who rise up at My Call.

Jesus Christ, King of France and Lord of Nations

31 July 2006:

1. Daughter, listen and write:

2. All sleep and yet fire is smoldering. Under the earth, fire rings the whole earth. Under the sea, it breaks the earth's crust and provokes tidal waves. These phenomena will not stop; on the contrary. The earth corresponds with the madness of mankind: it rumbles, it folds, it trembles, it breaks. Evil has been gnawing at its equilibrium for a long time now. Why not respect the earth and its rhythm, My children? Be more attentive to the needs of your earth. Certain people have become aware of the folly of 'racing ahead' (environmental policies more political than real), but nothing is done: always more consumption and waste of natural resources that My Father has placed at your disposition for your good; the Devil has corrupted everything in man.

3. What is true for the salvation of your environment is true for political life: only a miracle today can enable a great cleanup, a necessary prelude for the coming of My Reign in your time. Yes, it is another way of speaking about the necessary purification. Purification that will concern every fibre of what is living. No-one, nothing, will escape from the re-establishment of order. Everything is out of order because the first rule has been forgotten: 'you will love the Lord your God with all your strength, with all your soul'. Once disorder has been installed in the eternal alliance between man and God, disorder installs itself in more and more widespread cascades that touch and affect every domain of existence.

4. The prerequisite for all long term change, hence eschatological, is the re-establishment of order in the relationship of man with God through re-claiming and re-establishment () of My Right as Suzerain, over every Nation throughout the whole World, which will enable re-establishment of the legitimacy of the leaders of peoples, thereby extending, from the head down, My Social Reign. Order will be re-established and prosperity and Peace will be reborn. ( Because this issue is so critical, the French word used here, 'revendication', is explained for precision, particularly for those readers who are especially called to understand this: 'revendication (noun) = action de revendiquer; son resultat'; in law: 'action en justice dont l'objet est de faire reconnaître un droit de propriété', meaning 'action in law, the purpose of which is to have recognized a right of ownership'; 'son resultat = its result'; 'revendiquer (verb) = réclamer quelque chose qui vous appartient et dont on est privé', meaning 'to reclaim something that belongs to you but of which you have been deprived').

5. It no longer suffices to re-establish Christian laws, which no-one wants in your Nations that have neither faith nor law, to bring these Nations back to their vocation as children of God. Today, it is necessary to affirm My Kingship over these same Nations. For this, I need a Voice. And you will be this Voice when the hour comes.

6. No obstacle before you, no obstacle in you. I am sweeping out everything, I am effacing everything, I am renewing: your soul is being forged and tempered like a blade of steel. Nothing troubles you; there remains only the will to accomplish the Will of God. This is how I want you, and thus you are My friends.

7. My soul is sad even unto death but upon you I can depend. My pain is that of Love. Render Me justice for My Love, O! men of this earth. So much ungratefulness wounds My Holy Heart and yet without letting up, I send My servants. Now I am sending My sons and daughters, their will shall not be broken by the wall of indifference. Their strength of conviction will be terrible for the world. They have the weapons for the good fight.

8. Sons and daughters, believe. I bless you and I call you My friends.

Jesus

27 July 2008: 'I am burning with desire to inundate the face of the earth with the Power of My Love.'

1. The earth has never had so many messengers and 'little prophets' as it has today, who multiply My voice throughout the world; however, so few are listening to My Voice. In My Infinite Tenderness I lavish Myself upon My Father's favourite creature -- humankind -- and so few welcome Me. But I will break the chains that bind you, and your hearts will open, and I will live amongst you -- EMMANUEL!

2. Ephata! I am the Alpha and the Omega and no-one can prevail against Me. I am the Power and the Victory.

3. Little daughter, understand My thirst for souls, My ardent desire to live in your hearts. Understand My Anguish and My Agony in the face of the refusal of mankind. How can I give Myself if they do not want Me? But the hour of My Father is coming when I will manifest My Presence in all the Power of My Divinity, and when humanity will be overcome by My Purifying Fire. This Fire will be such that no-one will be able to resist it. At that point in time I will be the King of terror for My enemies, and the Divine Lamb for My friends.

4. To My cherished Sons and Daughters I will manifest in Power My Glory and their justification. They will no longer be the laughing stock of the world, but rather will become the yeast in the dough, because they will know how to forgive and to love far beyond what is imaginable, through the Holy Grace of My superabundant Glory. And new times will flourish. I am preparing ALL My children for My Coming in Glory. Do not be surprised at the concordance among the different messages being given by My servants (men and women). One day they will cry out with a single voice! -- 'He is coming!'. And this day is near, very near.

5. I have such a thirst for souls. I have such a desire to satisfy the justice of My Father. Let theologians not waste their time searching for unimportant things in My messages. Through My Sacrifice (on Calvary) I satisfied the Justice of My Father; but I also intend to draw humanity along with Me, because there where the head has passed, there also must the Body pass.

6. How I am hastening to be able to offer My Father a renewed earth, a prodigal son, a lost sheep! How My Heart burns! Your own impatience concerning the coming events, which you nevertheless know are going to be painful, is a reflection of this Fire which burns in My Heart. Let it especially burn within your own hearts, and do not be afraid to let your hearts be consumed by it because then it will be My Heart that burns within you. O this Fire!, this purifying Fire that will cover the whole earth, penetrating to the very depths of human hearts, minds and souls, rendering them naked and transparent before God. Then Truth will be revealed. This Fire burns within Me, My children; take your share of it and burn with Me so as to be found just on the Day when My Glory appears. O that Day!, that dreaded imminent day!

29 July 2008:

1. My children, the times are now ripe for water, fire, wind, storm, the letting loose of the elements, one by one or simultaneously, and this over the entire surface of the earth.
2. The Angel of the Lord who has been charged with the purification of peoples continues his work. You do not wish to admit or to acknowledge the purification which is taking place through the behaviour of the elements; this is because you are ignorant of the laws of God and His Love for the earth, which gives you life and which puts up with the impurity and contamination which you continue to inflict upon it. And all the while your international congresses resound with the terms of ecology, renewable energy, respect for nature, pollution control plans, and the environment! You do not understand that beyond all this, there is your Life, that which I have given you by My Breath: the life of the Spirit. The pollution of the environment, and therefore as a consequence of each one of your cells, entrains a deterioration of your intellectual faculties, and also -- especially -- your spiritual faculties.
3. If My earth quakes and disturbs you, it is to safeguard the divine creation, and not out of any capriciousness or geological movements. Know that movement of the earth's tectonic plates has little to do with current earthquakes. In fact your scientists will find little in the way scientific explanations. Because it is My laws that are acting and not those of the earth. My children, you are only just entering the times of the period of turbulences, and there will be others, shattering, horrifying, against which you will be powerless to do anything. Likewise the land of your country will tremble more strongly than ever in certain unaccustomed places. New tempests will form and traverse your country, sowing disaster in your crops and cultivations.
4. You ought to reform the conduct of your way of life because your way of life is an insult in My eyes. How can My people trample My laws underfoot as they do in following iniquitous and luciferian governments? My children no longer pray, no longer fast, no longer nourish themselves with My Life, as they are blind and allow themselves to be led to the slaughter house by sordid shepherds. O, these wicked, criminal governments, how they wound My heart with their deliberate evil leadership of My peoples. Yes, I affirm that those who govern Nations and who turn My people away from Me their God of Truth and Life sin against the Spirit. How My children will have to suffer because of their lack of discernment in the choice of their leaders!!
5. O My people, how they mislead you, how they degrade you, how they lead you to your damnation: to death, the second death. But, My peoples, cry out to Me your Saviour and at this time I will hear you again, I will overturn the powerful and I Myself will lead My flock. Might you be dumb, My children? Who prevents you from clamouring for Me? Why do you allow yourselves to be satisfied with the iniquitous laws of your Nations? Has Lucifer surpassed your God, Creator and Father in your hearts, he who has never ceased deceiving you, leading you to your damnation, turning you away from Me your God? O what Suffering! O what agony for your God, who sees Himself replaced in the hearts of His children by the Serpent who has been a murderer since the beginning.

6. Do you not understand the legitimate anger of My Father? Do you not understand the anger of the creation of My Father against you who lead it to denial and to error? Do you not understand the necessity for purification which takes the form of punishment for your redemption? Do you not understand My anguish in the face of this situation?

7. O, My children, share My anguish of a Father, and come back to Me, I am still waiting for you. It is still the time of My Mercy, but only for a short time now. Allow yourselves to be touched, O My peoples, by My tears of blood. I am in agony. My clothes are becoming soaked with Blood which oozes from all My pores. O, this sign that I give you, that you do not want to see. Final Mercy. Amen.

30 July 2008: My Heart is bleeding because of you.

1. My children, do not remain deaf to My calls. Because you have distanced yourselves from Me, My Heart bleeds profusely. It bleeds in several places on the earth and you do not even know. O those who hide My favours from My people, how they will regret it on the day of their anguish. How can I better manifest and cry out My love for you than by such signs? Who will understand My sufferings and anguish as your Redeemer?

2. Certain of My victims souls who love Me also bleed from the heart. May they augment their sacrifice for the salvation of sinners and for their Nations too, because they suffer from My own sufferings, because of the state of the world. You, My children who love Me, stay with Me in Gethsemane. Do not fall asleep, for the Kingdom is opening for you.

3. My children, rise up and go forth, because I want to take stock of My people. Come and help Me. I have been made Judge over the Nations and I will summon them before Me. And I will judge them. Will I be able to find just people among them, so as to appease the just wrath of My Father and to satisfy His justice?

4. My victim souls, allow your hearts to bleed in compassion with My own. Do not be afraid to give up your lives; on the contrary, I will have you participate in My Work of Love for the world.

5. Blood oozes from the burning wound in My heart, do you understand? From this burning brazier, life surges forth. O My little ones, take refuge in the burning furnace of My Bleeding Loving Heart. Let Me wash your robes clean in the Blood of the Lamb. O Servants of the Precious Blood of the Lamb That Was Slain, consecrate yourselves to My service, to My Divine Worship. I am calling you; leave your goods and chattels behind and follow Me.

31 July 2008:

1. Close your eyes, My little soul and turn your gaze inwards towards My Heart. You will see that My Heart is a heart of flesh, red, with many veins, palpitating, throbbing, young and vibrant.
2. Close your eyes again, My little soul. There you will see the intense luminous radiance that My heart emits at each pulsation. You see how it floods the earth with Its rays. You see that there are those who receive and absorb the rays of pure Love, and others who reject them and send them back to me.
3. My children, understand that My love is given to each and every person, at every instant, in waves that are being emitted continuously, inundating the entire earth and all its inhabitants -- 'The sun shines likewise on both the good and the bad.' With the difference, and this is but justice, that according to the welcome that is made for My Heart, I call you My children or My enemies. It is you and your attitude towards Me that makes the difference between the wheat and the darnel, the good grain and the weeds. What I am explaining to you is that I your God give you My love, and you either receive it or reject it, according to the dispositions of your own hearts. Hence I say to you, do not bear false accusations against Me, your God, because I will never abandon you. Rather, dispose your hearts favourably towards Me in order to receive My love and graces. My children, the time for procrastination and evasion are now over. Now is the time when you must decide and make a choice. But, My children, come to me! I am waiting for you.

13 October 2008: Jesus speaks:

4. Little soul, be attentive to My voice and write. Let us commence; take down this message for My children.
5. Dear children, today I want you to know, deep in your hearts, that I AM. You must understand that I truly live in you. This is neither spiritual imagery nor merely a way of speaking, for I am truly living in each heart that welcomes Me. The intimacy with which I intend to live within you is such that you must become aware of My Divine Presence in you because ...

I have My throne in your heart.

6. Like living tabernacles, you carry Me along the highways and byways of this world, and in this way I am the Emmanuel -- God living among His people. I want to give this new intimacy generously and abundantly; so ask Me to come and live in you and I will come. Be aware that in acting thus you are disciples of the Lord; you bear Him to a world that does not know Him, without even needing to open your mouths to convince others. I am the All Powerful and My Presence alone, in you, in the midst the world, will do more than all the words, no matter how wise they might be.

7. Be for Me My monstrances, and in this way let your feet carry Me there where I send you. This is a new form of evangelization to which I call you, My children. A holy mission, and how precious and delicate, and completely hidden, but so Powerful, because in this way you allow Me to act where ordinarily I am not present – in countless places of life and work, in the hearts of your cities as well as in the distant confines of your countries.

8. Do My children turn away from Me and no longer come to visit Me? Then I will go to them, with all the power of My Real Presence hidden in your hearts! Do you no longer have the right to wear My signs visible on your persons? You will carry Me within you, like a treasure more precious than gold! They can forbid you to wear all exterior signs, but no-one can forbid you to bear THE interior sign, nor in any way to limit His Power. In this way I will live upon the earth in a New Presence, because it is hidden; but one day, as you know, the Truth will be revealed.

9. My children, respond generously to My Call to be My silent Witnesses, soldiers without visible weapons, silent evangelizers and faithful adorers. I love you and I bless you for rising up at My Call like an innumerable and invisible army. My children, your reward will be great because you will see Me at work with your eyes of the flesh among the idolatrous and apostate Nations. I tell you again: no exterior sign, only My Presence hidden in your hearts and in this way I will act through you in the hearts of Nations.

Jesus Christ, Lord of Nations

17th October 2008:

1. Daughter, come, I am calling you, you know I must confide you My Word for these times. Listen to My Voice and fear not. I am your God and I love you. Little daughter, write for My children.

2. Sons and daughters, I am calling you, do not delay your response because the time is very close when I need you for My Plans. In your prayers you reproach Me for not intervening ... but I can only intervene in your lives and on your request, in order for you to be My arm in this world. Do you think that My Coming upon earth would have taken place, through My Holy Mother, if generations and generations of people had not intensely prayed and beseeched My Father for it, in response to the promises received by the prophets? Your hearts are calling Me and I am coming in the time chosen by My Father. Today, this time is very close, and this is not the moment to stop your prayers because of all too human discouragement.

3. Dare to be courageous in the Faith and I will be able to act with you and through you. Be for Me instruments of My Mercy for the world, to be rebuilt according to My Law. You know that what does not conform with My Law will be destroyed. There will be much to rebuild, beginning with the organization of society. I am calling you, My children, to work with Me in a precise and precious manner. But first I must be sure of you, I must be certain that I can count on you, that I can depend on you. For many of you I have almost completed your preparation, by forming you and training you in obedience, by pruning you, sometimes in suffering, in My ways and according to My views. Many of you are ready and that is why today I am now able and now want to sound the call.

4. Come children, from the four corners of the earth, gather before Me, and not in the eyes of the world. Let the world be unaware of you, but I know you. I Myself will gather all those who I am calling today. And I will complete your personal preparation, individually and collegially. Let My Law be your law. Let My Name be your name. Let My Mother be your Mother. Let My celestial armies be your help, your strength, your reinforcements, in this world in the hour of combat. Yes, I speak of the eternal battle between the son of man and the Son of God. They are clever, so be intelligent; they are keen to win, be impartial and generous; they are obscene, be pure like the Lamb that you carry in your hearts, and We will conquer. And I will have My Throne among the Nations, and My Father will have a faithful and holy people, and you will have the new earth and the new heavens!

5. Keep writing, My daughter: I am forming My battalion for these times. Those who I am calling have all received this call from their earliest childhood, although not all remember this. Furthermore, I have renewed My Call on other occasions since. Today, those who I am calling are awaiting this call, in some cases waiting for a number of years, without knowing exactly what I destine them for. Today, I am announcing it: I am forming My battalion for the combat of these times. I am setting you apart, My children. I am cutting you off from this world, although most of you will remain in the world.

6. Because, within the heart of My battalion, I am also raising up an elite unit called to Perpetual Adoration, collegial and sacerdotal (priestly), that will breathe My Spirit into the heart of My battalion, so that none of My chosen children forgets, at any time, that they owe Me obedience, at the risk of ruining My plans.

7. From amongst you I will raise up a Leader, and Priests and scribes. I will also raise up amongst you a very special unit attached to the personal service of the Leader so that he guides you in integrity and justice according to My Ways.

8. Keep writing, My child. Finally, I also foresee a particularly special unit, of which My Heavenly Mother will officially be the Superior General. Yes, a unit of women, of holy women, devoted to the service of their brothers, in prayer and in adoration, removed from the world, completely set apart for My Service. These women will live together, they will be the Pillar upon which I will support My Edifice.

9. Let My Call today reverberate among all your Nations. I will give further instructions, but let Me say again: this Call confirms for all a first personal call and many already know what I am expecting of them. My daughter, transmit this message without delay.

PRAYERS GIVEN TO Agnès-Marie:

O Heart of Jesus (prayer given by Jesus on 30 May 1999)

O Heart of Jesus, open my heart to Your Infinite Love, to the Tenderness of the Father, to Your Divine Mercy.

O Heart of Jesus, given up to save us, open my heart and come and live in me.

O Heart of Jesus, give me Mary, Protectress of our souls, so that we can conquer the enemy.

O Heart of Jesus, give us your Spirit who breathes in our souls, so that we can love you infinitely. Amen

Mary, Model of Co-Redemption (prayer given by Jesus on 23 October 1999)

Mary, model of co-redemption.

Mary, Daughter, Spouse and Mother of the Trinity, come to the aid of your people.

Give us your Eucharistic Son

so that we can adore Him in truth.

Show us the way of the reign of God, Eucharistic Jesus, heavenly nourishment for our hearts and in whom we wish to be co-redeemers for the Glory of God and the Salvation of the world. Amen.

Novena Prayer for the Coming of the King of France (given by Jesus on 11th April 2000)

God of Tenderness and Mercy, we give You our hearts and our lives,
we give You the soul of our country.

Sanctify us and Purify Us.

Build Your Reign among us,
the Reign of Justice, of Peace and Love, the Reign of the Divine Will.

May the Immaculate Heart of Mary united with Your Sorrowful Sacred Heart triumph.

Through Your Holy Wounds,
through Your Precious Blood,
O Heart of Jesus,
this we beseech of You:
give us the king according to Your Heart, who we beseech You for on our knees through the intercession of Your Most Holy Mother.
Let Thy kingdom come and Thy will be done.
Come Lord Jesus, come. Amen.

This Novena Prayer is for use in all countries because the establishment of My Reign will take place through France, the eldest daughter of the Church. This king according to My Heart will be king of France in the name of My Divine Royalty; he is the Lieutenant of Christ and the first servant of Mary.

The Novena is to be prayed kneeling: pray an Our Father, a Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father, followed by a hymn to the Holy Spirit.

This novena must commence as soon as possible. It can be renewed as often as one desires. Particular grace is especially attached to the nine days which precede My Feast of Christ the King.

My children, thank you for responding from the depths of your hearts to My call for prayer. It is prayer that establishes you as children of God; it is through prayer that the king according to My Heart will mount the throne of France. My little children, through this novena, I will finally give you the shepherd who will lead you to the Father.

Jesus Christ

Merciful Father (prayer given by the Blessed Virgin Mary on 12 August 2000)

Merciful Father, grant meekness and faith to souls in these times, strengthen the weak, nourish the hungry with Living Bread, quench the thirst of those in need of Your Word, and raise up the fallen.

Merciful Father, open your welcoming Heart and be merciful towards your children, allow Yourself to be moved to the depths of Your Heart for Your creatures, do not deny mankind who You trust with your Love.

Merciful Father, grant your people the glory of their Salvation, allow the Heavenly Jerusalem to come down, let the United Hearts of Jesus and Mary triumph under the protection of Saint Joseph.

Merciful Father, slow to anger and full of Love, have mercy on us. Hasten the return of Your Son in His Glory and let Your All Powerful Spirit renew the face of the earth.

Merciful Father, welcome in Your Loving Bosom those in Purgatory who aspire to Your Kingdom, pour out your graces upon those who await there, so that Your disconsolate children there may come to You without delay.

Merciful Father, through the Divine Mercy of Your Son, deliver us from evil now and forever, and open the gates of the Kingdom for us who have confidence (trust) in you.

Consecration to the Most Precious Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ.

Conscious, merciful Saviour, of my nothingness and of Thy sublimity, I cast myself at Thy feet and thank thee for the many proofs of Thy grace shown to me, Thy ungrateful creature. I thank Thee especially for delivering me by Thy Precious Blood from the destructive power of Satan. In the presence of my dear Mother, Mary, my Guardian Angel, my Patron Saint, and of the whole company of Heaven, I dedicate myself voluntarily with a sincere heart, O dearest Jesus, to thy Precious Blood, by which Thou hast redeemed the world from sin, death and Hell.

I promise Thee, with the help of Thy grace and to the utmost of my strength, to stir up and foster devotion to Thy Precious Blood, the Price of our Redemption, so that Thy adorable Precious Blood may be honoured and glorified by all.

In this way, I wish to make reparation for my disloyalty towards Thy Precious Blood of Love, and to make satisfaction to Thee for the many profanations which mankind commits against that precious price of their salvation. O would that my own sins, my faithlessness, coldness and indifference, and all the acts of disrespect I have ever committed against Thee, O Holy Precious Blood, could be undone.

Behold, O dearest Jesus, I offer to Thee the love, honour and adoration, which Thy most holy Mother, Thy faithful disciples and all the saints have offered to Thy Precious Blood. I ask Thee to forget my earlier faithlessness, coldness and indifference, and to forgive all who offend Thee. Sprinkle me, O Divine Saviour, and all mankind with Thy Precious Blood, so that we, O Crucified Love, may love Thee from now on with all our hearts, and worthily honour the Precious Price of our Salvation. Amen.

Prayer to Raise Up the King of France (Jesus, 11 June 2011; 21st January 2013).

'Daughter, I now so ardently want to give My king, that I am giving you a prayer for yourself and your companions, a prayer to say after the Consecration to the Precious Blood, so that I give the king who will give Me the earth in order for Me to present it to My Father.' (given by Jesus 11 June 2011). To be said after the Consecration to the Precious Blood (Jesus, 11 June 2011). On 21st January 2013 Jesus added that this King has been given and that we must now pray for him to respond and be raised up in grace and strength).

Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ to Whom I have freely and in full awareness consecrated myself and my life, my affections, my joys and my sorrows,
through the merits of the Holy Cross of Love, upon which was immolated our Veritable Lamb, and which saw You flow on the Mount of Golgotha,
I beseech you,
with my companion Servants of the Precious Blood of the Sacrificed Lamb, to protect our king
so that in the days of Your Will, he is revealed to the world for the accomplishment of your Promises.

Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ,
(~~obtain~~) raise up for us this king who is 'according to the Heart of Jesus', so that he becomes the shepherd who leads us to Heaven.

Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ,
through the merits of Mary,
Virgin of the Eucharist,
(~~obtain~~) raise up for us this most obedient king and the face of the earth will be renewed.

Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ,
deign to hear our prayers
made as with one heart,
in obedience to the divine injunctions.
(Give) Raise up for us this great king so that we might serve him faithfully until death. Amen.

Act of Commitment and Prayer of the Servants of the Heart of Jesus (Jesus, October 2010; given again 2 January 2013).

'It is I Who ordered and directed the establishment of this Order of New Knighthood; I gave it its Statutes, its Rule, its Coat of Arms, and its Motto. And although not all are called to join the First Order as Knights, or the Second Order as Oblates, all can freely and without reservation join the Fifth Order of My prayer warriors -- the Servants of the Heart of Jesus ... for men and women ... and it is open to all those who wish to support, spiritually and temporally, My Orders of Knights and Oblates. In this it is enough -- let Me repeat it again here -- to join up in union of prayer, in other words, to add to your usual prayers and devotions the following prayer intention:

Act of Commitment and Prayer of the Servants of the Heart of Jesus:

O Heart of Jesus, I want to serve you by supporting through my prayers and good works, the Orders that You Yourself have founded for these times which are the last:

- the Order of New Knighthood and
 - the Order of Oblate Servants of the Precious Blood of the Sacrificed Lamb,
 - the Order of the Knight Servants of the Eucharist and
 - the Order of the Servant-Adorers,
- and I choose for my Mother, Mary, model of co-Redemption, so that it is She who guides me. Amen.

And hence you men and women become, in My eyes, a Servant of the Heart of Jesus, in the Fifth Order of the Order of New Knighthood. Each one of you, My children, can and must help Me with this prayer intention. ... I have chosen you for My Plan of Love for this world. ... I call you to be part of the little remnant ... for My Plan for the rescue of humanity, through My Order of New Knighthood ... it is time to join and form up in the ranks of My Order of New Knighthood.' (Our Lord, through Agnès-Marie, 'Letter to Those Who Love Me: Yes, I Am Coming Without Delay' (2010) and 'Joy of Heaven on Earth for Men Who Love God: Messages of Jesus Christ to the Little Remnant' (2013).)

BACK COVER:

Faithful to His Word ... "No indeed, the Lord Yahweh does nothing without revealing his secret to His servants the prophets" (Am 3:7). And there will be prophets until the end of time to guide the action of mankind - men and women - so that they do not go astray, as St. Thomas Aquinas teaches us (Sum. Th. II-II Q. 171 to 174). Here, in dictation to Agnès-Marie, the Lord Jesus lifts the corner of the veil on events which are soon to take place. It is a broad canvas which He unveils and describes before our eyes; sometimes it is also God the Father who speaks, sometimes His Most Holy Mother, and sometimes the Archangel St. Michael, to move us beyond the culture of death, which is asphyxiating us, to the civilization of love, in which finally He will reign.

For two thousand years the Church has prayed, has beseeched, has implored, that the prayer of supplication in the Our Father would finally be accomplished: 'Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven', and it is going to happen! And the long prophesied king of France (message of 23 Jan 2000) is going to contribute to the coming of this reign of glory.

The earth is going to be purified ... not a soul will escape this purification (message of 14 Nov 1999). Theologians who meditate on these messages will not be surprised if they first re-acquaint themselves with the prophetic word of Isaiah 65:17: "For look, I am going to create new heavens and a new earth, and the past will not be remembered and will come no more to mind. Rather be joyful, be glad forever at what I am creating, for look, I am creating Jerusalem to be 'Joy' and my people to be 'Gladness'. ..."

In this book the reader will discover a Wisdom which surpasses the wisdom of Solomon! This is new language, fresh and joyous like a new springtime for the world, a language that the little and the humble will understand, those to whom the Lord reveals His secrets (Luke 10:21) 'I bless you Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to little children.' Because once again the words of Scripture will be verified: 'As your word unfolds, it gives light, and even the simple understand.' (Ps 119:130)

This is a book to pick up and read without hesitation; digest it and you will taste the JOY OF GOD.
