

OUR LORD SPEAKS TO HIS CHILDREN IN THE COUNTIES OF IRELAND AND SOUTH WALES -- Messages for Today and Tomorrow (2009)

(Received by Agnès-Marie in France, March - May 2009; translated and published by the First Founding Knight, Coordinator of the ONK Works of the Lord; these messages were given prior to the Lisbon Treaty II Referendum of 2nd October 2009)

OUR LORD SPEAKS TO HIS CHILDREN IN IRELAND :

PRE-ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE CALL:

(1 July 2009, Feast of the Precious Blood)

(Message: 16 April 2009)

1. My dear children of Ireland, I have given you prophets in Ireland, and certain ones among them have been dragged in the mud of the world, but they nevertheless resist courageously. To let you know of My special Love for you, I am soon going to send you a prophet from My great Nation of France, who will bring you a Message on My behalf.

2. This message is of capital importance for your Nation as well as for My Plan of Love for the world. I ask you, My children, to prepare yourselves to receive it by drawing closer to Me. You can already know that it is about a pressing Call that I am making to your Nation in recognition of the merits of the Faith of Your fathers. What I am asking of you will surprise you, and this is why I am inviting you from today onwards to turn your hearts towards Me to be able to understand My views and My Plan. My children, do not take My Words lightly, because the times are extremely serious and extremely short. I need all My children in order to have My Justice and My Peace reign in the world.

3. My people, yes, I call you My people, you who have inhabited My land of Ireland since times immemorial, because today it is upon you that I am going to rely to prepare tomorrow. O My people, who else but you will be able to remain faithful to the Faith of your fathers and reject the vain glory of the world that proposes its artificial tinsel even as all the economies of the world have collapsed? I, your Sovereign Lord and Ruler, am the Rock on which to build the house. My people, I invite you to say NO to the world and YES to God. And let your NO be NO and your YES be YES, because I vomit the lukewarm. However, I know that you are not lukewarm, My people, and this is why I trust in your response of Faith to My Message, which will soon be brought to your land by My Messenger from France. (Note: In the 2008 Lisbon Treaty Referendum, the people of Ireland voted a resounding 'NO'; in the 2009 re-run, the Lisbon Treaty II Referendum, it was a resounding 'YES').

4. Irishman, My child, be aware of the seriousness of the times, believe that My Return () is near, very near. Understand well that I need your response of Faith to My Call. Convince yourself of being the Defender of My Kingdom because such is the meaning of My Call on your life. ( i.e., Our Lord's Second Coming)

5. Ireland, chosen Nation, battered Nation, share My Sufferings of God rejected by men, and honour Me according to your Faith.
6. My children, the Announcement of My Call will be communicated to you, by every means available, by My dear son who is the kingpin of My Work and the Coordinator of My Plan. He is My Arm in Ireland.
7. My children, sure of finding you strong in the Faith and ready to work for My Work, I bless you, all of you who become aware of this Call.

Jesus Christ, Ruler of Nations and Prince of Peace

Our Lady's Blessing for the Irish People

(25 March 2009):

8. 'Daughter, I am your Mother, Mother of Heaven and Mother of the earth, because I am close to my children. Daughter, I come to tell you that I am the Mother of Ireland and of the Irish people, and that I myself as Mother will assist in the mission that my Divine Son wants to accomplish through your pilgrimage in these lands. I will draw to my Son all my children who will listen to you and who will hear you speak of my goodness for Ireland. Hence, tell them: I am coming with you to visit my people in their lands. In my name, as Mother of Ireland, you will impose your hands upon my children who will desire this: this will be my Motherly Blessing for each soul who will come and pose a knee on the ground before you who will be my ambassador. In imposing your hands upon them, you will say to each one of them:

'The Mother of Ireland gives you her blessings.'

9. Before this blessing, you will speak to them about my garden that you know well and you will tell them that I am waiting for them there, seated on my little stone bench or trimming my rose bushes. You are to tell them that sometimes My Son comes into this garden. You are to tell them that I love Ireland and I exhort them to please My Son by obeying Him in everything and in complete trust.

10. Daughter, fear not, I am with you, I am your Mother and you are the Friend of the Heart of My Son, hence I will accompany you at the same time as you are my Ambassador.

Mary, Mother of Ireland and Mother of the Irish People

11. Jesus Speaks (5 April 2009):

I am preparing an exceptional Harvest in Ireland because hearts are already responding to My Call even before it has been officially rung out, spread by you and My children. I will have My Throne in Ireland, according to My Will, because My faithful servants are zealous in the mission and live in My Spirit, and hence I am able to work through them. [...]

12. Jesus Speaks (15 April 2009):

My Mother sheds tears over the land of Ireland because she knows the sufferings that are taking place there. My children, do not turn away from Heaven in these terrible times for humanity. Heaven suffers with you because of economic events and increased distress in families. My children, pray to My Mother who is the Mother of Ireland. She protects her trusting children.

13. The times, terrible, will pass away, but My Words and My Love for you will not pass away. My children, confide yourselves to Heaven. Do not lower your eyes to your miseries but raise them up to My Mercy. Oh, how I love you, My children of Ireland! I love you and I count on you in My Plan for the rescue of humanity. Do not disappoint My Holy Heart. The resurrection of this world belongs to you. Pray to My Sacred Heart and pray to My Mother. We will help you with everything. Welcome My Words of hope from whatever source they come, because We are going to encourage you from now on so that My Plan of Love becomes a reality.

OUR LORD SPEAKS TO HIS CHILDREN IN THE COUNTIES OF IRELAND AND SOUTH WALES: Messages for Today and Tomorrow (2009)

(Received by Agnès-Marie in France, March - May 2009; released August 2009)

(10 March 2009)

14. My children, I love you dearly especially as inheritors of the Christendoms (the former Christian kingdoms) of Ireland and South Wales. My blessings extend over you as they extended over your fathers!

15. I have given you prophets; however, to speak to you today I choose an instrument coming from the kingdom of France. Ponder on this.

16. I am sending My messenger among you, and she comes to meet you as an apostle of My Return in hearts and as a messenger for her brothers and sisters. Thank you for facilitating her voyage in your counties by providing for all manner of necessities. In this you will serve Me and you will serve her mission.

17. To begin with, My children, I affirm My Sacred Kingship (*) over your counties, thus making of you subjects of My Law of Love. From this follow rights and duties. (Note: King John of England formally donated his Kingdom, England and Ireland, to Our Lord Jesus Christ on 13th May 1213, see 'Jesus Christ, King, and Our Lady, Queen, of Ireland – 8th Centenary (13th May 1213 -- 13th May 2013)', 40 pages, €5, plus €2 p&p.)

18. The dragon of Ulster will not prevail against you! Your fidelity throughout the centuries has earned for you a defender, My Archangel Michael, who cleaves falsehoods asunder with his flaming sword. Call upon him. His banner flies over your counties, give it a place of honour.

19. From the plains of Cornwall blows an evil wind - may it not bring you down. Sons and daughters of the Counties of Ireland and South Wales, be for Me a rampart for the defence of My Kingdom. Do not allow My enemy to advance on lands that I gave to your fathers before you. I reign over Ireland as Sovereign Ruler; do not leave My kingdom unprotected, at the mercy of those who want to take it over for themselves and against you. My children, affirm your sovereign right to remain under My Law now that you are being invited to choose a new master. Beware, My children, do not let yourselves be deceived by the apparent ease with which this is being done. Do not forget that God Alone is Saviour.

20. I am the Ruler of All Nations. To speak of a 'Nation' means national sovereignty subject to the Divine Government for the good of man. Which good consists of the inheritance of the Heavenly Kingdom as sons and daughters of God. Reject being subject to Me and you will no longer have a Nation, and hence no inheritance to hope for as a people.

21. Now, the good of man is won not only by individuals, but charity and love command that it be won as a people so that not a single one is lost.

22. If man owes worship to God, how much more does a Nation too owe such worship to God, as an instrument willed by God to work for the good of a whole people and thereby for the good of all souls who, on their own, would not be able to win the spiritual combat in view of the last things (i.e., death, judgement, Heaven or Hell).

23. My children, I affirm My Will to remain Ruler of Ireland and the Counties that are attached to it by right, the counties of South Wales. Note that I do not claim Northern Ireland but certainly South Wales. Let your Church historians who specialise in law look into the question and they will find all the justifications for My Royal claims.

24. I convoke to My Court the chiefs of your clans, for them to symbolically lay down the keys of their office at the foot of My Cross, thereby recognising their subservience to My Kingship. And let those among you who have the power to do so prepare, elaborate and support the Royal Decree for the re-attachment of the Counties of South Wales to Ireland in exchange for the definitive renunciation of Irish sovereignty over Ulster.

25. Let Pendragon keep what is his and give Me back what is Mine! Such is My Will. Such is My Power that these things will be accomplished in the face of the peoples (nations) and to the amazement of the majority. This is how, with Wisdom, Love and Charity, the endless conflict that is tearing My people apart will be settled. This is how I will reign in all Justice over what belongs to Me.

(12 March 2009)

26. My children, My Justice is immanent. It is. And in its divine essence it is just. And I am coming to exercise My Right as Judge over the Nations. In the same way as I will exercise it over each soul. In the eyes of the Father who has so willed it, a Nation is more than the sum total of the individuals of which it consists. It has its own existence and Divine Justice has rights over it. A Nation governed with wisdom and integrity has nothing to fear from My Justice: it will be found just. However, on the other hand, let all apostate nations that have made rejection of God the foundation of their Constitutions and what drives their actions fear My Justice! The last things (Death, Judgment, Heaven or Hell) towards which they lead their peoples are not the Eternal happiness of man (men and women) justified through the lives they have led -- to Heaven -- but to Hell, the kingdom of Satan and his henchmen. In these nations, souls can save themselves individually, but how many more are lost because of the absence of sanctifying social structures and institutions?

27. My children, your Nation, Ireland, up until now has been found just. As a Nation, it has been able to resist modernist sirens even if individual souls -- always too numerous -- have succumbed to them. Today, to urge you on in this last trial of fidelity, I send you My beloved daughter. Do you realise just how much importance I place on the necessary victory of Faith over impiety? I prize you so much as a faithful Nation that I send My messenger to urge you on in My Name and to bring you My message. My children, resist with all your strength the one world order sirens who do not cease until they haul you into their infernal nets. Because, My children, understand this well, if you sign this perfidious treaty (Lisbon II), you would be forced to modify your Constitution by replacing My Name with the Masonic new world order ideology. Do you see how political combat is essentially a spiritual combat? Make no mistake about it, your Nation only interests the agents of the one world order to the extent that it still officially belongs to Me. It is not only a question of defending national sovereignty but it is especially one of affirming filial subservience to the Eternal Father.

28. Others nations, who have nevertheless known My tender love and My blessings, have fallen. And this is why I am turning aside from them. But I do not want to turn aside from you because of the Faith of your fathers. Your Counties are a Catholic foundation and they have always honoured Me. And it is due to this faithfulness that you merit being the object of My special concern. Even before France, you were.

29. My children, in political matters you can put your faith in a providential man. However, in spiritual combat, in which the salvation of the souls of the people of your nation is at stake, I am the only possible Saviour. Meditate on the story of Job, My children, and be faithful in material difficulties today just as you were able to be in the past. And I will add a jewel to your crown.

30. My children, the form of government that I prefer is that of kingship by divine right and Catholic in essence. Your Constitution that affirms the subservience of your Nation to God has been and still is a rampart. From now on make it a springboard. In the past you have been able to protect and retain the affirmation of your fidelity to God. Today, in counteraction to the trap that is being set for you to fall into, I ask you to go even further yet and to work towards the restoration of a Catholic reigning line. A republic as it exists in your country is a lesser evil, but I ask you to break with the world according to what I have said: 'Be in the world but not of the world'.

31. I have said: 'I will add a jewel to your crown'; this means: I will place a king according to My Heart at the head of your Counties. And he, beyond his personal piety as a son, will render public worship to Me in the name of the Nation.

(19 March 2009)

32. My dear children, understand that if you are the object of my special concern, it is because of the strength of your faith and your courage. In your trials, and they have been quite numerous, you have always been able to raise your eyes to Heaven and to conduct yourselves as worthy sons and daughters of your Lord. This is why I love you so dearly. This is why I come to ask you to do even more to affirm your loyalty to My Crown. Pendragon will be much more inclined to accede to what I am asking for than you believe, because I am also preparing hearts in his domain. The evidence of historical proof from feudal law will be such that technical obstacles will not hold up for long.

(20 March 2009)

33. My children of the Counties faithful to the past of their Catholic Faith will be strengthened and will form but one Nation chosen by Me for the extension of My Reign. This is how I will render justice to the Faith of your fathers. They honoured and served Me above everything, including sometimes with their lives and often with their possessions. I want to recompense, as they rightly deserve, My courageous people who have remained faithful throughout the centuries.

34. And I come today to encourage you to still remain faithful, yet again, without letting up, in the last assault, as in the first. I, Jesus Christ, tell you that there have been martyrs in Ireland, hidden martyrs, humble and little martyrs, faithful martyrs, of the greatness of soul of the first Christians, who in My Name accepted to live in extreme poverty and discomfort. Alongside saints whose names have come down through history borne by legends there have been great unknown saints, who tilled the land of Ireland to sow faith in Christ, often at the peril of their lives and always in extreme poverty. There have also been great saints during the great tragedies in the history of Ireland including those in the most recent wave of emigration. Poverty has driven them, faith has sustained them and led them to accept, for the sanctification of their race and their land, the martyrdom of exile. But their sons and daughters will return to live again in the land of their fathers and there will bring up their children and the children of their children in Love and Charity.

35. My dear children I encourage you to make known to your brothers and sisters the story of your people (nation) since My Resurrection up until the present day. Let them know of My Covenant (Alliance) with Ireland and what I have done for her and what she has done for Me throughout history. A work has already been produced (*) and it is good that it be presented at the same time as My present message. This present message is a continuation of My Covenant (Alliance). A good knowledge of the history of the Church in Ireland will strengthen your courage and will comfort you in My special Love for you. O! My people, you have already responded with generosity to My Calls of Christ the King! (* 'Ireland, Land and Home of My Heart, Beloved Country ... Remember Our Covenant', 88 pages, €10, plus €2 p&p.)

(21 March 2009) Feast of St. Benedict (Benedictine Order)

36. My Children, if I urge you on so solemnly to be My zealous, faithful and loving servants, as very dear sons and daughters, it is because of the terrible crisis that is enveloping the world corrupted by Satan and Mammon united together under the orders of Lucifer. Never ever, in all of human history, have the demons had as much power as they have today. Power that they have acquired at your expense because of the lack of Faith of humanity, which is sinking deeper and deeper into the mire of indifference and scorn for God the Father, Creator of all things.

37. Saint Michael is the Leader of the combat, and his army of angels is always ready. He is now coming to prepare, among you My children, his army upon the earth, his army of saints combating evil in all its forms. Children, let arise amongst you those whose warrior blood of their ancestors awakens to the Call of My Archangel! Yes, My sons, I have already called you in the depths of your hearts, but you have not quite known how to respond. Today, this call of My Archangel Michael now resonates unmistakably within you. Rise up, My sons! Come together and place yourselves under the mantle of My holy and glorious Mother, behind the banner of Saint Michael, and march to My orders.

38. I am forming amongst you My army of courageous warriors of My cause and of My rights over your Nation. Be the heralds of Christ the King and heroes among men by your Faith, Charity, Love of Truth, courage, strength and the certainty of conducting a good fight, a fight that fills earth and Heaven with saints. Part of the fight is spiritual and is conducted with spiritual weapons. Part of the fight is political and is engaged with the weapons of right, law and history as indicated. Part of the fight is won within yourselves, but this you have won because you have been found worthy to be named among the Soldiers of Christ. Yet another part again of this fight for God concerns the defence of the widow and the orphan, maintaining social order and national defence in case of attack on your country. My friends, I bless your project for a New Knighthood.⁽¹⁾ Gather together and organise your fighting body. You have, dispersed here and there throughout My messages conveyed by My servant ⁽²⁾, all the necessary instructions and guidelines to go to work. And you have the Coordinator of My Works ⁽³⁾. (1) The 'New Soldier-Apostles / Knighthood Project (2007); (2) 'JOY of GOD', Messages from 1999-2008, Agnès-Marie, (2009, 512 pages); (3) the Founding Knight.

(5 April 2009)

39. My children, turn yourselves always towards the Cross of Love that reigns over your land: My Cross erected for your sanctification, this Cross that I bless. Gather together at the foot of My Cross, My children, come together under the mantle of Mary who protects My works so that the world does not see what I am doing for My Kingdom and hence might not be able to destroy it before the hour of its complete realisation.

40. I count / depend much on My Work of the New Knighthood for the establishment of My New Order -- New Earth and New Heavens.

41. I call My sons to this New Knighthood. My daughters -- their mothers, sisters, wives and daughters -- will be called Servants of the Precious Blood of the Sacrificed Lamb. Their prayers and actions will be oriented towards supporting My Work of the New Knighthood. This will be an Order of oblates. I will give the statutes and the spirituality elsewhere. From My Heart, My children, issued forth two rays (the red and white rays of the Divine Mercy image of Saint Faustina); likewise you are sons and daughters, both issuing from My Heart, different and complementary, in action as in spirituality, but united in My service and for My cause.

42. My daughters, do not believe that in this I ask less of you than of My sons. Your role in society is very important. Not the role that one wants you to believe in at the present time, but the role foreseen in My Order, which is the natural order. Insist on your true liberty: that of virginity, of maternity in marriage, of the education in holiness of your children. Choose the freedom of imitating Mary, your Mother, in all circumstances. Be free to lead your life according to My Law and My Will. Do not allow the world to dictate your behaviour according to its erroneous, lying and humiliating misconceptions. Be beautiful in My eyes, free before Me, strong in the Faith, proud of your roots, and faithful to your convictions as Christian women.

(14 May 2009)

43. My beloved children of My Church in Ireland, you are Mine whether you reside in the Counties of Ireland and South Wales or not. I therefore call you to support, in all My Works, your brothers and sisters. I call you to the New Knighthood and to My Order of Oblates, the Servants of the Precious Blood of the Sacrificed Lamb. Understand that I am acting on two different levels, because of the pettiness of men who govern you. I must use your laws to present what I am asking for.

44. My blessed little children of the Church in Ireland, I ask you to respond to this Call with all the enthusiasm of your ardent hearts to love Me. My Mother is Mother of Ireland and of every Irish man and woman throughout the world. My Call surpasses the frontiers of the Counties and can be heard and supported by every Irish Catholic who loves Me and who loves Ireland. Ireland, the old country, the country of origins, of misty legends and ancestral myths ... know this, behind every ancient narrative is hidden, more or less distorted, a Truth that I wanted to reveal to My people. Enter into the mystic soul of your country and understand that before I existed (), I was (). (, as Saviour who walked the earth; , the Eternally Begotten Son of the Father, and Head of All Creation).

45. My children, you who are called to be My defenders in the New Knighthood, a dragon lies dormant in Ireland that must be brought out into the open and fought for the defence of My Kingdom.

46. My Knights, your engagement is eternal and is similar to a sacrament, hence nothing must be neglected in your formation before your probation by the brothers. I, Myself, am the Master of Novices of My Order of Knights. I fashion you into My own Image and Likeness and though I have no visible armour or sword, My Soul is that of a Valiant Knight Defender of the Kingdom of My Father. Do not be unaware of My Power and the Strength of My Spirit. I am the Word, He through Whom all was created.

47. My friends, be the inheritors of My Power. And, let arise in Ireland My first army of consecrated Knights. Have your Houses as it was in earlier times. Have a crown of Houses in every nation where My Call, so particular for these times, will reverberate. Do not tremble before any powers of this world, but tremble before the throne of My Father!

48. My Knights, are your hearts thrilling, is your blood boiling, and is a prayer of thanksgiving gushing from your souls? ... if so, then you are Mine forever! Come together in your Houses, run up your colours, your coat of arms, your flags and banners, spread and display them far and wide because they accomplish more than a long discourse.

(17 May 2009)

49. Your coat of arms is My Cross (the Cross-Monstrance) adorned with the royal fleur-de-lys and the Trinitarian trefoil (shamrock), surrounded by the four Crowns of My Kingdom. Your coat of arms is My Coat of Arms. Wear them nobly and proudly, they will speak to the hearts of crowds.

50. My children, from now on, the Great Combat announced has commenced. Have no fear of it, on the contrary, arm yourselves with the weapons of My Holy Mother and rejoice for having been chosen for these times.

51. My children, enter into My Divine Plan and uphold My Divine Will. Be My apostles of these times and of your Nation.

52. My children, I need you for My Designs of Love, respond generously and without hesitation, each according to your particular call.

53. My blessed children, My Word is Truth and My Law is unchanging. I bless you.

54. Spread the fire of My Call over your Nation, and My Kingdom will spread over every Nation.

SUPPLEMENTARY MESSAGES:

From Jesus, for the People of Ulster.

(10 May 2009)

55. Agnes-Marie: Lord, I must transmit a request from Your son in Ireland in the name of the Catholics of Northern Ireland who might feel abandoned (in the light of the message to the Irish Counties): 'On behalf of Your children, the faithful and fervent Catholics of the North, who have no part in anti-Christian horrors, I dare to beseech you Lord, in the name of Your Love for us and our love for You, to express your Will and Your Desires, in order to encourage them too. My Lord, in the name of Your Love for all your children in Ulster, I beseech You.'

56. Jesus: I do not abandon My children! I put them face to face with their contradictions. Yes, there are many Catholics in Northern Ireland.

57. I cannot claim Ulster because it does not belong to Me. Yes, there are many in Ulster who have suffered for their faith. Today they have obtained freedom of worship and have been able to reconcile with their brothers and sisters. My children, if I cannot claim Ulster Myself, Ulster can ask for its re-attachment to Ireland and, by this, to affirm its right to be subject to My Law.

58. My children, I am not abandoning you in your particular situation, and you can participate in My Work in Ireland. You can pray, you can create a branch of My New Knighthood and a House of My Order of Servants, but I cannot rekindle the fratricidal war that is now over. Politically, you must definitively renounce Ulster in favour of South Wales. Spiritually, you can work together with your brothers and sisters of Ireland, for Ireland and My Plan. Nevertheless, My children, and I reaffirm it, historically and according to Church law, Ulster does not belong to Ireland.

59. My Irish Catholic children of Ulster can also choose exile to Ireland if the yoke of Pendragon is too heavy for them, or they can remain where they are and work to obtain the re-attachment of Ulster to Ireland by convincing their brothers and sisters and the parliament.

60. My children of Ulster, I am looking after you and I love you, you are My children. My call to the counties of Ireland and South Wales does not mean that I am turning aside from you, only, and understand this, Ulster does not belong to Me by law historically, whereas I am in a position to prove that South Wales belongs to Ireland. In what I am now asking of you and for My Plan, I must take into account rights according to your laws.

61. I am Ruler of Ulster as I am of every Nation, as I am Ruler of the Universe, and all Creation belongs to Me. Nevertheless, for this particular design I must rely on rights humanly justifiable according to your laws. My children, trust your God and His dealings.

Look at things the way I see them. Meditate on My Word. And, help Me in My Work in Ireland as Irish Catholics. The unity of the Church surpasses rifts between States: 'Render to Caesar what is Caesar's, and to God what is God's.' My dear children of Ulster, you can serve My Plan generously: work for My interests and not for your own.

62. Today, it is essential that Ireland sets up a barrage to the one world order intentions of the European Union by affirming its belonging to God as a Nation, and to this you can contribute. My children of Ulster, I watch over you and I bless you.

Jesus Christ
Ruler of Nations

From Jesus, for the New Knights:

(19 May 2009)

63. Agnes-Marie: Lord, I transmit another request from Your son in Ireland. Lord, what is the nature of the dragon that the New Knights must combat for the defence of Your Kingdom?

64. Jesus: This ancestral dragon is that of paganism continuing to refuse to understand that if I did not come to abolish, I certainly came to accomplish. This means that since My Coming and My Resurrection, the world cannot continue as if I did not exist. I Am. I am the accomplishment of the ancient religion. Those who today still refuse My Truth have commerce with the ancient serpent and the obscure forces put to sleep by Saint Patrick but always present in the depths of the Irish character.
